

Residents Attend Annual Event of Birmingham Club

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER MI 6-9716

Several couples from the Beverly Hills attended a dinner at the Birmingham Community House on Feb. 5. This was an annual dinner given by members of the Birmingham Women's Club for their husbands and guests.

Mrs. Frederick P. Betz, program chairman, introduced Mrs. George Heifinger, president of the Birmingham League of Women Voters, who gave a brief talk on Con-Con, followed by a film on "Project Hope," shown and narrated by Dale L. Brubaker of Birmingham who had been on the ship.

BEVERLY - ARTESIAN members and guests are anticipating an evening of fun at their annual dance, "The Champagne Capers" on Saturday. They will dance to the music of The Carl Lawrence Orchestra in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Southfield.

It will be Mardi Gras at the Pagoda on Feb. 23, when the Beverly 12 group holds its annual dinner dance.

Among the early reservations are Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. Len Budzen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Yorks, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Green, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Malice, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. Robert Blitt, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Frank.

MRS. DOUGLAS J. Wood on Martineau opted her home to participants in the recent Michigan Industrial Medical Association Auxiliary telephone bridge. This was a state-wide project, the proceeds to be used to purchase industrial medical books for the libraries of the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

Guests invited to the dessert bridge were Mrs. Charles Young, Mrs. Anthony Foley, Mrs. Dallas Sprinkle, Mrs. Robert Hornor, Mrs. Van Vorst, Mrs. Earl Stucky, Mrs. Ronald Filter and Mrs. Joseph Pais. Mrs. Wood also provided prizes for high and low scores for the afternoon.

VIRGINIA NAYLON was guest of honor at a kitchen shower on Friday given by Mrs. Charles Young of Leemore Drive. Decorations and white theme, the centerpiece being a bride flanked by crystal candelabra and pink candles. The guests homed tea towels and enjoyed several unusual games.

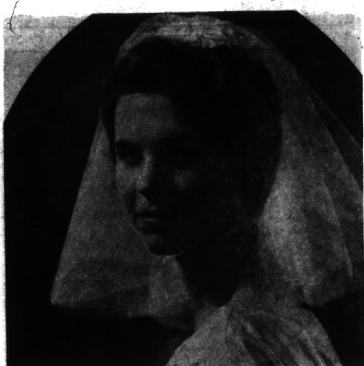

Guests were Mrs. Jack Naylor, mother of the bride, Mrs. James Pass Sr., mother of the groom, Carolyn Naylor, Marilyn Pass, Suzanne Young, Mrs. Charles Brindle, Mrs. Ray Becker, Mrs. Roger Clancy, Mrs. Paul Fleck, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Ernie Martin, Mrs. John P. Naylor, Mrs. Casey Richards, Mrs. Ralph School, and Mrs. James Pass Jr. Virginia and Bob will be wed at a nuptial mass in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church at 11 a.m. on Feb. 23.

MRS. MILTON YOUNG of Pierce Street, chairman of the parish section of the Michigan Unit of the Catholic Library Association announces the annual winter workshop to be held on Feb. 23 at St. Benedict's parish, Pontiac.

Fr. Francis X. Canfield, national president of the Catholic Library Association will be the principal speaker of the day. Harry Noble of Bro-Dart Industries will give a demonstration of plastic book covering and library supplies.

Mrs. Helen Dempsey will explain cataloging and classification in processing books. There will be a discussion on the new list of books on social problems which have been suggested as first purchase books for parish libraries.

Anyone interested in attending the workshop may contact Mrs. Young for more information.

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE Father's Night at School Is Real Double Feature

GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

"Two heads are better than one," so the saying goes—and that was certainly the case in the event of "father's night" held Tuesday at the PTA meeting at Lathrup School. Fathers and Grandfathers were both encouraged to attend because each father was counted twice on this special night.

The more serious side of the evening was also geared for the male audience. Guest speaker was Fred Chase who was secretary to the Michigan Senate for 29 years and secretary for the Michigan Constitutional Convention. His topic was Con-Con. He was introduced by father vice-president, Bill Stewart.

The coveted gold colored horse "Petey" was awarded to the class with the most fathers in attendance.

SOUTHFIELD "Chic chapeaux" will set the theme for an Easter millinery sale to be held Feb. 22 and 23. The annual event is sponsored by the Episcopal church women of St. David's Church, 16200 West 12 Mile Road, Southfield.

Latest French and American creations for midday will be on display in the church from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday and from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Chairman of this year's event is Mrs. John Bryan of Rock Creek Drive, Southfield. Mrs. Bryan's committee consists of Mrs. James Jackson of Shagbark, Mrs. Arthur Detrisac of Sunnybrook, Mrs.

Deep Red Accents Ivory Bridal Robes

At a ceremony solemnized in Harvard's Appleton Chapel in Memorial Church, Cambridge, Mass., Sherry Marker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Marker of Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows to Steven Lattimore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lattimore of Rosemont, Pa. Immediately following the service, a reception was given at Philips Brooks House, the Harvard Yard.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of ivory peau de soie, its short sleeves and midriff trimmed with slightly deeper ivory lace. The short veil was attached to a coronet of lace and seed pearls, and the bridal bouquet was fashioned of deep red sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

MRS. ARTHUR LISCH of Vancouver, B.C., wore emerald green satin for her role as matron of honor and only attendant. Her flowers were red and white roses.

Alexander Lattimore was his brother's best man, and ushers
