

Unity Center Dedicates Its New Facilities

Unity Center, Birmingham, dedicated its new religious facilities at Unity Truth Temple, 1152 Homewood, at Woodward, at 3 p.m. Sunday, with three guests conducting the services.

Virginia Shipley, minister of the Unity Center in downtown Detroit and sponsor of Unity work in Birmingham, delivered the dedication message.

Mrs. Ruth Carr, who has acted as leader of the group as it grew for two years, and Charles Neal, minister of Detroit Unity Temple, also participated.

AFTER THE SERVICE, John Pant, assistant minister at Detroit Unity Temple, conducted a piano recital. An informal open house followed.

According to the Rev. Edward J. Hoge, the Unity Truth Temple facilities include a large, newly decorated chapel ultimately seating 150; Sunday School rooms in the lower level capable of seating up to 10 classes; a minister's study; and a lower-level library.

Fellowship Plans Annual Breakfasts

The Men's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Birmingham will begin their annual Lenten Breakfasts Wednesday morning and continuing each Wednesday until Easter.

These meetings will begin with breakfast at 6:30 a.m. and conclude with a Devotional Service from 7:15 a.m. to 7:30 a.m.

These Devotional Services will be led by ministers from the Detroit-Birmingham area and are scheduled as follows:

Feb. 27—Rev. John A. Root—St. Andrews Lutheran Church, Bloomfield Township
March 6—Rev. Nicholas Hood, Plymouth Congregational Church, Detroit
March 13—Rev. Robert Bohner—First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham
March 20—Rev. Roy Lausman, Emmanuel United Church of Christ, Royal Oak
March 27—Rev. Louis Taylor, Mayflower Congregational Church, Detroit
April 3—Paul Nicely, member of Congregational Church of Birmingham
April 10—Rev. Raymond Fennner, The Congregational Church of Birmingham
All members of the Fellowship are urged to attend and are invited to bring a guest.

Women's Club Hears Talk On Pressures

A lecture on "Pressures" was heard by more than 100 women, of which almost 50 were first timers, at the February Christian Women's Club Luncheon at Devon Gables.

The speaker, Mrs. Fred Renich, who teaches six groups in the area, included competition, standards of living, responsibility, time, finances and inadequate feelings as the major pressures facing women of today and concluded with a real challenge on how to meet them.

BARITONE BILL McConnell sang two numbers, his own translation of a German song by Hugo Wolf and "Eternal Life," with words by St. Francis of Assisi.

Mrs. Robert Foster of Huntington Woods gave a talk on her unusual hobby of "Gemmaux," or painting with glass, and showed a large number of the glass items she has made.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Harold MacDonald of 1261 Club Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

The next luncheon will be held March 13. Persons interested may contact Mrs. George Aho of 7085 Pinewood Court, Birmingham.

Airman Orval Smith Graduates in Texas

Airman Third Class Orval S. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval S. Smith, Sr., of Southfield, is being reassigned to Castle AFB, Calif., following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for aircraft structural repairman at Amarillo AFB, Tex.

A former student at Southfield High School, the airman entered the Air Force in August, 1962.

A summer institute for 50 secondary school chemistry teachers will be held on the Michigan State University campus this summer under a $48,900 grant from the National Science Foundation. The MSU Science and Mathematics Teaching Center will conduct the institute.
