Forest Lake Country Club opened its doors Saturday night for one of the largest dinner dances on the club calendar. Partial incentive for the turnout was the fact that the club has had a face lifting job done since it closed a month ago and members and guests were anxious to put their vote of approval on innovations. One of the most attractive is the spacious, permanent dance floor (no more totting portable jobs) which now graces what used to be the sun porch. Sliding doors opening from the lounge lead to a glassed-in ballroom commanding a lovely view and boasting a parquet floor which makes dancing a swinging affair. Additional decor includes reupholstered furniture throughout, new drapes and a redecorated powder room as frothy as madame's is at home. Among the throngs at Saturday's party were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brandt, Mrs. Nan Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Holme, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Sanford, the W. F. Nerns, the Dale Winnies, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Forster and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Kinney.

SHIRLEY BROECKER AND BETTY KELLEY

It was a one shot deal, we'll admit, but for a few hours Saturday night Franklin Valley had its own key club, bunnies 'n' all! Only key that was needed for admittance, however, was to be a member of the subdivision, for this was an Association Party at Eagle School and all members participated. Potluck dinner, served piping hot buffet style and with enough variety to appeal to even the most gourmet, preceded a variety show directed by Bill Sandy and Bob Scott. Skits, costumes, musical arrangements, lighting and sound effects were all under the supervision of talented neighbors. There were 60 people in the cast and an audience of over 200. Special bows go to John Merchant, Murray Kane, Julius Rado, George Smith, Esther Yulton, Homer Manuel, Ivan Harrower, Rosemary Hagger, Ellen Manuel, Harold Renneker, George Cowie, Ellie Perry, Donna Loftis, Barb DeLisio, Don Hayes and Mary Duysters for the untold hours they spent in helping organize a party that will be long-remembered.

"How to Succeed!"

Well, theater goes, if your mail order tickets from New York for "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" are dated for sometime after next New Year's Eve, toss 'em in the basket, get your money back, or both!

For, as of right now, tickets for the April 22 Detroit premiere are available through that group of women who support the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor.

Spring-like, green inked flyers went out this week to over 4,500 residents of Detroit and suburbia, with co-chairmen Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., and Mrs. Harry J. Mack advising that every seat in the Fisher Theater is being made available on a first-come-first-served basis.

Local Participation

There have been a number of coffees, luncheons and teas this month given by committees on arrangements. In the Birmingham-Bloomfield area, Mrs. Jerry T. Flanagan, president emeritus, met in her Rugby Road home with Auxiliary President Mrs. Walter E. Tomieic and Vice Presidents Mrs. Joseph J. Churches, Mrs. Aloysius F. Power and Mrs. James M. Roche.

Other local workers include Mrs. Judge W. Bearden, Mrs. J. Clarence Grix, Mrs. Walter F. Krickman, Mrs. Leo Jentgen, Mrs. George J. Jaglowicz, Mrs. Jean T. Shearor and Mrs. Philip J. Monaghan.

Among honor guests on the invitation list for this largest event on the spring calendar are Gov. and Mrs. Romney, Senator and Mrs. Phillip A. Hart (who'll be house guests of her sister, Chairman Mrs. Fisher) and Mayor and Mrs. Cavanaugh.

People Are Talking . . .

George Copes Have Georgia On Their Minds

by HELEN PETERS

The George H. Copes' news that they are moving to Toccoa, Ga., after many years in Birmingham, has brought on a flurry of parties in their honor.

Last Thursday night the Harold W. Burrows of N. Adams Road entertained at a dinner party, and Saturday night former business associates of Mr. Copes honored the couple at cocktails and dinner at the Harmonie Club. Included in these parties were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Montgomery of Hillsdale, who were the houseguests of the Copes.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Last and Mr. and Mrs. Glen S. Wilson will co-host a party for the pair Friday at Western Golf and Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Cope, incidentally, recently returned from Forest Park, Ill., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henderson. She was the former Nancy Cope.

MR. AND MRS. CARL Blaumann of Old Salem Court are visiting Mrs. Blaumann's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dick of Denver, Colo. While there, the four expect to spend a week-end in Aspen skiing. Also a reunion has been planned of all the Birmingham girls and their husbands who now live in Denver. The Blaumanns are expected home next week.

Birmingham's 30-Up Club sponsored its first dance Friday night at the YMCA on Lincoln Ave. and, if the turnout is any criteria, it would appear that the series is headed for success. The club was organized for the purpose of sociability, fun and fellowship, its membership garnered from single men and women aged 30 and up. Next party is scheduled for Friday night, with live music and refreshments a continuing feature.

Girls from this area currently studying there are Lee Eyles, 18347 Bedford Road, Birmingham, and Sirt von Reiz, 1156 W. View Road, Bloomfield Hills.

The show is an annual original musical production put on each year by the Hasty Pudding Club of Harvard—with some assistance from Radcliffe students.

All local Harvard - Radcliffe alumni are being asked to host dinner-theater parties the night of the show. (What's for dessert?)
