Post-Valentine Party Climaxes Southern Trip

NTA HARD
MA 6-3224

There's nothing like climaxing a three-week vacation trip with a party for 50 people.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carden of Utley Road, Wood Creek Farms, no sooner returned from a week in Florida and a 13-day Caribbean cruise than they welcomed friends and neighbors Saturday night for a post-Valentine party per earlier plans.

The details of their island-hopping trip from a "floating hotel" were reported along with good weather and a stop at Venezuela as a highlight.

The Cardens were joined on the cruise by Mr. and Mrs. Richard

Taylor of Westbrook who also had just returned.

FRANKLIN

Mrs. Edward Green will be hostess for the Lenten study group meetings starting Feb. 28 and continuing each Thursday until April 4.

Members will gather for a coffee period at the Green home on Woodlure at 9:30 a.m. and at 10. Mrs. Hugh White will begin the discussion of Charles M. Layman's book, "Luke's Portrait of Christ."

MARCH 1 will be the day to roll up your sleeves for the blood bank at the Franklin Community Church. Appointments are being made now to schedule donors from 7 till 8:15 p.m.

Fourteen callers are covering 26 separate subdivisions and communities in the Franklin-North Farmington and adjacent areas. Coordinators is Mrs. Charles S. Brown of Chenwood Court, Wood Creek, who is accepting appointments.

Last year 160 pints of blood were collected at the Franklin blood bank.

MRS. R. R. RIDLEY

Trip East Follows Rites in Church

Jane Kay Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Roberts of Eastman Road, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Robert Roy Ridley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ridley of Barnden Road, Bloomfield Hills. A reception at the Village Woman's Club followed the 7:30 o'clock ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook.

The bride wore a beau de soie gown fashioned with a controlled bell skirt and bateau neckline. Alencon lace embroidered with pearls and crystals accented the fitted bodice, and a pillbox embroidered in the same pearls secured her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white hydrangea phalaenopsis orchids.

THE ATTENDANTS, all gowned in red taffeta accented by panels of matching velvet, included Mrs. Charles Schell of Milton, Wis., matron of honor; Sue Chrysler of Southfield and Jackie James of Berkeley. They wore white fur halo headpieces and carried matching muffs to which were pinned sprays of red carnations.

B. Terrence Markey of Royal Oak was best man, and seating the guests were Robert Kutcher of Birmingham; Jack Ridley, brother of the bridegroom; Paul Geneur of Clawson and Ronald Garwood of Franklin.

Following a trip to New York, the newlyweds will make their home in Royal Oak.

included J. B. Beard with son Ned and grandson Steve; Merton J. Bell with Larry; Lloyd H. Diehl, Jr. with Lloyd III; John O. Dykstra with Richard, John and Jim; Charles Huff with Charles, Jr., Charles A. and James; William Lynch with grandson Peter Rule . . .

About Birmingham's George Montgomery (businessman, not movie star) who recently visited interminably in Chicago for an airport limousine to take off for O'Hare . . . finally told the driver he couldn't afford to miss his plane . . . only to be told, "Sorry, Bud, we're waiting for a celebrity!" . . . took another five minutes and firm language to convince his chauffeur that THAT George Montgomery was undoubtedly about ready to leave for the set . . .

And about the Montgomery daughters, Leigh and Lynn, who still have stars in their eyes over a double birthday celebration which took place in La Grange, Ill. . . their two grandfathers, George W. Swanson and George E. Montgomery, are not only neighbors in the Illinois town, but have anniversaries on the same date, Feb. 10 . . . the girls drove over with their family for festivities . . .

Accent on Romance

Two engagement announcements emanating from out of town will be of interest locally.

From Rochester, Minn., comes word that Margaret Marie McNish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McNish, will speak her marriage vows in the fall to James Robert Mosby, Jr., son of Mrs. J. Robert Mosby of Shirley Drive, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Mosby.

Jim, who is now working out of New York City, formerly lived in Bay City, and so did Marie. She is a graduate of Michigan State University, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, and her fiance is a graduate of the University of Michigan. His fraternity is Beta Theta Phi.

Former Birminghamites, Mr. and Mrs. Newman T. Halvorson of Gates Mills, O., announce the engagement of their daughter, Sigrid, to Louis Richard Freese, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Freese of Denver, Colo.

Sigrid was graduated from Hathaway Brown in Cleveland and from Wellesley. She later attended the University of Geneva in Switzerland. She is a provisional member of the Junior League of Cleveland.

The bridegroom-elect was graduated magna cum laude from Princeton, where he was a member of Colonial Club. He is also a graduate of Harvard Law School, where he joined Lincoln's Inn Society. He is a member of the University Club of Denver.

The wedding is planned for June 15.

Party for a Bride-Elect

Sugar and spice and everything nice! It was a spice shower that Mrs. Frank Gagnier of Kingsmill Drive, Kirkwood, gave on Sunday in honor of her niece, Patricia Nolan of Detroit, who will be married Saturday to James Kuras of Tootmoor, Bloomfield Hills.

Among the 20 guests attending the shower were Mrs. Frank A. Nolan, Mrs. Gagnier's sister and Patricia's mother. Mrs. A. E. Hamilton of Detroit and Mrs. James J. Byrne, Chisholm Trail, Birmingham, the bride-elect's grandmother and aunt, respectively, were also present.

Other guests were Mrs. Joseph B. Kuras, mother of the prospective bridegroom, and Mrs. John H. Nolan of Terrybrook Road, Patricia's sister-in-law, who will be her matron of honor.

Eighth Graders Under Scrutiny

A special meeting for the parents of eighth grade students will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at Barnum Junior High School in the cafeteria. The meeting will consider the basic plan for the coming four years in high school. Malcolm Tindall will discuss guidance implications in preparing the four year plan. Muriel Brusie will speak on the implementation of course selections for the ninth grade in particular. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Riverwoods Club Plans Luncheon

The Riverwoods Garden Club is planning a luncheon card party to raise money for community landscaping projects at the North Congregational Church on April 3 at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Cleve Nixon of 24701 Samoset Trail is in charge of the affair. There will be handmade gifts on sale and a baked goods sale under the supervision of Mrs. Richard Arnold.

Mrs. John Creevy will conduct a palmistry booth and Mrs. John Klett is in charge of door prizes. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Klett or Mrs. Glen Wisely.
