

Localite Named Vice Chairman

Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy of Robin Hood Drive, Birmingham, was elected one of the vice chairmen of Planned Parenthood League, Inc., at the annual meeting of the organization held this month. She will serve under the new chairman, Mrs. John A. Herrmann, of Grosse Pointe.

Elected to the Planned Parenthood board from this area are Mrs. Loren C. Sheffield of Pontiac; Mrs. William P. Woodside, Jr.; and the Rev. Gerald B. O'Grady of Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. John Albrecht and Mrs. William Bullock of Birmingham; Mrs. Arthur Moore of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Homer Sale of Lathrup Village.

The League has moved its executive offices from the Downtown Detroit YWCA to the second floor of the Professional Building, Woodward at Peterboro. The new quarters have a birth control clinic which holds seven sessions weekly. In Oakland County, the League's new clinic building in downtown Birmingham serves three days a week and Wednesday evenings.

Students Present Story of Education In Dramatic Form

By ELEANOR NELSON
MI 7-0056

The all-purpose room of the George Gough Booth School was the scene of a program on Feb. 4th. It was on that date that Mrs. Netta Dresser's sixth grade class of 30 pupils presented "The Education Story." The class had written to various colleges and universities to obtain information which they then wrote into script form to "Dramatics and Its Use in the Classroom."

After the pupils presentation, Mrs. Dresser spoke to the audience on the use of dramatics in teaching and in making learning fun.

On March 5th, the school will hold a joint meeting with Wing Lake School. The guest speaker will be Karl Hise, WJR radio personality, on "Music Appreciation." The program will be held at the Booth School.

WESTCHESTER
On Jan. 30, Brownie Scout Troop 666 of the Westwin neighborhood group held its investiture ceremony. Mothers of the members were invited to witness the pinning and were serving refreshments. Mrs. Robt. Weir and Mrs. Robt. Batchelor are co-leaders of the troop.

The girls who received their pins were Jill Batchelor, Cindy Kelle, Bonnie Decker, Barbara Doran, Marsha Factor, Maria Garber, Darlene Jacobites, Susan O'Neil, Karen Weir, Kathleen Wacker, Debbie Restlicher, Janet Rogers, Patti Sue Rose and Mary Lou Prahler.

Mr. and Mrs. POLIHAN of Orchard Lane welcomed their son home from Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. Jerry had completed his six months of army duty. While in the service, Jerry had been assigned to the Engineer Corps. His plans now include returning to school, probably General Motors Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Polihan gave a cocktail party recently to introduce new neighbors to friends. The new families were the Michael Georges and the Harold Arstensen both of Orchard Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Georges moved here from Detroit with their two children, Anthony, 2 and Robert 1. Georges is in the dairy business. Both he and his wife enjoy bowling and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Arstensen moved from Detroit also. Their family consists of Nicole, 7; Michael, 6; and Timothy, 3. Arstensen is owner of the Alco Machinery Co., Detroit. Both Mr. and Mrs. Arstensen enjoy golfing and gardening while the children love to skate.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kriger of S. Cranbrook Circle and Mrs. Allen Kriger of Huntington Woods co-hosted a cocktail party on Feb. 9 at which the engagement of their nephew, Arthur Malkin, Milwaukee, Wis., was announced. Arthur is engaged to Shirley Levin of Detroit.

There were 50 guests at the party. They included Malkin's mother, Mrs. Grace Malkin, and his brother, James Malkin, both here from Milwaukee. The young couple are to be married on March 24th. Visiting at the same time were Mrs. Kriger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arnovitz of Youngstown, O. Barry Kriger was home from his studies at the U. of M. for the weekend to assist his parents in entertaining the party guests.

THE SENATOR AND his lady

—that is, Hans and Tina Schejwe of W. Maple—attended the "Gala Romana Ball" given by the Beaux Art Society of Columbus, O. in Feb. The gallery had been stripped of its paintings and in their place hung posters depicting the Roman era. All who attended wore Roman costumes. Wine tasting was a feature of the evening.

While in Columbus the Scheiwes stayed with friends, the William Bairds. Mr. George Kozloff of England, a cousin of Mrs. Scheiwes, has been visiting here during the past several weeks.

On Valentine Day, Mrs. Scheiwes, accompanied by Mrs. R. Green of Turtle Lake, drove to Toledo for the day to view the Versailles exhibit being shown there.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH BUSH of S. Williamsbury have returned home from Arlington Heights, Ill., where they visited with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Vignetti, for a week. The main purpose of the visit was to celebrate the birthday of their grandson Bobby. While there the entire family went bowling, including the two younger grandchildren Nancy and Carol.

Rodeo Rider

Mrs. Gerald E. Baldwin, 760 Colonial Ct., Birmingham, is vacationing at the Lazy-K Bar, Cortaro, Ariz., as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Spaulding. Highlight of her stay will be the annual winter rodeo in Tucson in which she will ride.

Ruth Shain Class To Feature Spin

The Ruth Shain class on international affairs, which meets every two weeks at the Community House, has scheduled its next session for Feb. 25 at 10 a.m. Anyone interested is invited.

"Spain" will be the subject to be discussed with Mrs. Julian M. Gilroy giving a thumbnail sketch of Franco.
