The Don Formans of Charing Way Drive, the Bud Carricks of Queens Way Drive and the Robert Rareys of Hickory Heights Drive will be joining the Joseph Farhans of Birmingham for a week of skiing in March.

Their destination will be the White Face Mountains of New York where they will ski down some of the 2400-foot vertical slopes. Their plans include making the Sportsman Inn in Wilmington their headquarters during the week.

Preparing for the outing, Farhans spent three days last weekend on the slopes at Boyne Mountain; the Rareys spent a week at Crystal Mountain and the Carricks spent 10 days basking in the sun at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

THE "SKI BUG" has nipped the Fred Cruzes and children, Rick, Deborah, Lori and Shelley, of Charing Way Drive. They arrived on the slopes at Pine Knob equipped to take their first family lesson last weekend.

Leonard Lane subdivision residents are gathering at the Kingsley Inn on Saturday evening for their annual dinner dance. Planning the popular event are the subdivision president and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swager of Lanerzan Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. King Laney of Bolingbroke Drive.

THE JOSEPH Gillands of Charing Way Drive are back home again after a two-week trip via train to the west coast. They arrived in Los Angeles and then visited Disneyland and San Francisco. In Walnut Creek, they visited their daughter and her husband, the H. J. Hubingers, and acquainted themselves with their grandchildren, Christine, 3 and John, 3 months.

Mrs. W. John Foxwell of Weatherlane postponed her March trip back home to England for two weeks as she and Mr. Foxwell will be busy moving into their new home around the corner on Oakhill Drive. They have purchased the Prust home. Dr. Prust will be busy moving into their new home in Franklin Village.

The Foxwells will be settled before the first of their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. George

They have four children: Frederick, Jr., 6, a pupil at Harlan school; Kim, 4, Kenneth, 2, and Nancy, 6 months. Petterson is an electrician. The family are active in the Trinity Lutheran Church of Clawson and enjoy bowling.

Newcomers to Hawthorne Court are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Thomas and their 14-month-old daughter, Jacqueline. Their move was from Pontiac. Thomas is superintendent of Northwood Engineering. Their interests include golf, photography, knitting and sewing.

FIRST OF THE newcomers in Whitehall subdivision are the Norman Richards of Hunt Club Drive. Their move was from Huntington Woods. The Richards have two daughters, Betty, who does free lance modeling and Sue a student at Ferris Institute.
