

Suburban Problems Elects Officers To Be Discussed

The Birmingham alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority held their bi-annual elections Monday, Feb. 11, at an evening meeting in the home of Mrs. Kent Bone. Mrs. Donald Pollock was named president of the group.

Other newly elected officers include Mrs. John Fox, vice-president; Mrs. Grady Robertson, recording secretary; Mrs. Jerry Johnson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Walker Mayhew, treasurer. The meeting was followed by dessert and a short film on Hawaii presented through the courtesy of the Birmingham Travel Bureau.

Braes Residents Host Potluck Suppers

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-3234

Once a month, four Braes couples—the Joe Koszias, the Lynn Barbers, the Richard Pier-sols and the Neale Schermerhorns—get together for a potluck supper and evening of bridge. On Saturday the group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Koszias on Westmoor.

Another potluck supper, though coming from farther afield, was held on Feb. 9 at the Darramoor Road home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kodrich. The guest list included couples from Allen Park, Livonia, Farmington, River Rouge and Dearborn.

At the ANNUAL meeting of the Braes Three Association, officers for 1963 were elected. President is Edward Waranowicz; vice-president, Willard McPhee; treasurer, Jerry Mattz; and secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Fraser.

IT'S A BOY! William George McIntyre, all 7 pounds and 14 ounces of him, arrived Feb. 8th, rounding out his proud parents' family to three boys and three girls. Happily passing out cigars and accepting congratulations are Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre of Old Orchard Drive.

MR. AND MRS. George Merlati of Darramoor Road returned recently from a motor trip to Bryn Mawr, Pa., where they had attended the wedding of Dona Acuss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Acuss, and Michael Fitzsimons.

KIRKWOOD The 17 Kirkwood girls who make up Brownie Troop 379 entertained their mothers, brothers and sisters at a Valentine party on Friday afternoon. "The Pot of Gold," put on by the Brownies, "the theatre" was the home of Mrs. Jack Keller of Woodwind Drive. Mrs. Keller and Mr. Roger Zatkoff, also of Woodwind Drive, are co-leaders of the troop.

WEST BLOOMFIELD Brand new spring hats—110 of them—and the chance to try on each and every one was the delightful event enjoyed by 68 members of the Episcopal Church Women of the Church of the Advent on Feb. 12. The hats were sent out by a millinery company in the East and were for sale, if there was something you couldn't bear to part with.

The dessert and hat show was held in the Sunday school rooms of the church and was the last social event of the group before the start of the Lenten season.

THE BLOOMFIELD 4-H Club gave a combination birthday and Valentine party on Feb. 18th for 70 boys of toddlers' age at Plymouth State Home and Training School near Northville. Birthday gifts were presented to those who had birthdays in February.

On the committee were Linda Jacobson, Rickiann Hostie, Eric Woodward, Douglas Norland, Barbara Hillier, Ann Patterson and Kristine Simonson. They were assisted by their leaders, Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, Mrs. Fredrick Ringe and Mrs. M. B. Norland.

On Saturday, Pam Barnes exhibited her chicken and d. Beth Naugusot her rabbit to a group of children at the Cranbrook Institute of Science. They gave a talk on the care of their pets and also told about 4-H Club work.

WALNUT LAKE Boy Scout Troop 41 held its court of honor on Feb. 7th at Meadowlark School.

Receiving life badges or star awards were Dave Phillips, John Payne, Jim Wagner, Jim Carroll and Dave Shull.

The following boys also were honored: Dave Russell, Mark Crorey, Gary Baugher, Gary Fouch,
