'Thinking Day' Celebrated by Brownies

Mrs. James Steele of Dartmouth Road who is neighborhood chairman of the Northwest Lake area of the Brownie Scouts reported on the "Thinking Day" ceremonies given through the combined efforts of eight Brownie Troops. The ceremony itself was held on Feb. 20th at the Meadowlake School.

Hostess troop for the day was Troop 335 of Meadowlake. Mrs. Philip Meola is leader of the group and Mrs. Donald Parker is assistant leader. The flag troop formed, as yet numberless, and made up of second and third grade girls from Meadowlake based their skit on Denmark. Troop 373 of Meadowlake presented a Mexican game. Troop 314 from Conant School chose Sweden as their country. Troop 325 from Meadowlake sang a French song and Troop 512 from Walnut Lake modeled clothing from Norway and showed dolls from that country.

TROOP 62 from Pine Lake did an English folk song. Troop 385 from Booth School did an African song complete with tom-toms. Troop 108 from Wing Lake showed a guinea in Mexico and did "Ten Little Indians" in Spanish. Troop 487 from Booth School explained the World Association of Girl Guides and Scouts and also told of the Juliet Low World Friendship Fund. The flag ceremony was presented by Troop 385 using World American and a brogue flag.

The breakfast table for the wedding party and relatives was decorated with an arrangement of red and white flowers which complemented an American and a Swiss flag. Also, each table for the guests was decorated with an American and a Swiss flag.

Before returning to Zurich, Switzerland, where they were decorated at a reception immediately following the ceremony. The newly-married Maieras are enjoying a honeymoon in Nassau and New York.

International Theme Highlights Wedding

Mary Helen Bachman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Bachman of Lahser Road, Birmingham, and Max Felix Maier, son of Herr and Frau Georg Maier of Dietikon, Switzerland, spoke their marriage vows Feb. 16 at a nuptial high mass in Holy Name Church.

The bride's gown, which she selected in Switzerland, was of pure swiss silk accented with a touch of St. Gallen lace. A matching headpiece secured her veil of silk illusion.

MRS. MAIER

The attendants, wearing red silk sheath dresses and carrying variegated red and white carnations, included Sylvia Lovat, maid of honor of Lincoln Park; Jean Plant of Dearborn and Frances Allison of Charlotte, N. C.

Leo H. Lesperance of Detroit served as best man for his Swiss friend and sephing the guests were Dr. Joseph Bachman, brother of the bride; Dr. Bruno Maier, brother of the groom, and Don Vavra of LaGrange, Ill.

SPECIAL GUESTS who were present for the ceremony were Herr and Frau Maier, Dr. Alice Maier, sister-in-law of the groom from Dietikon, Switzerland; Elizabeth Dissler of Pueblo, Col.; Karl Keller, the bride's grandfather, and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Feilen, the bride's uncle and aunt.

The red and white color scheme was further carried out at Oakland Hills Country Club where the bride and groom greeted their many friends at a reception immediately following the ceremony.

Bridal Pair On Cruise In Carribean

by HELEN PETERS MI 4-8328

At a double ring ceremony solemnized Saturday at noon in Holy Name Church, Patricia Anne Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sullivan of Wooddale, Birmingham, became the bride of Edward O. Wolf III, son of Maj.

MRS. WOLF

Gen. and Mrs. Edward O. Wolf, Jr. of Short Hills, N. J. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin brocade gown fashioned with a scoop neckline, slightly dropped waistline and a bell-shaped skirt which swept into a full chapel train. Self-fringed bows accented the front waist and were repeated down the center back seam. She wore a mantilla of Alencon lace and her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis.

Following a reception and luncheon at Orchard Lake Country Club, the newlyweds left on a Caribbean cruise. They will make their home in East Orange, N. J.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS Judith Sullivan, who was her sister's maid of honor; Sandra Wolf, sister of the bride-groom and Eleanor Lucey of Belleair, N. Y., were dressed in Bahama blue velveteen made with scoop necklines, three-quarter sleeves and controlled bell skirts. They wore matching crowns of velveteen leaves and carried white gardenias.

Frank Kane of Mount Holly, N. J., was best man, and

'Vive La France' Echoes Through Club

"Soiree de grand gala . . . breuvages, boissons . . . diner et soiree dansante . . . modes, modes, salon de Margi Franzel!" This is French in any country, and this is the evening's entertainment at Oakland Hills Country Club Friday March 8. Mrs. Jesse P. Judd, the club's ladies' social chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Jack J. Rinehart, decided the only thing missing at the club's opening ladies' luncheon (a romantic gypsy affair) was men.

Therefore, a French Cabaret theme was decided upon as the proper inducement to get the husbands out for dinner, dancing and to give them a preview of the latest fashions in resort and spring wear.

THE CLUB'S LIVING room lounge will be transformed into an intimate cabaret setting. Surrounding the pink draped runway, where models will display fashions from the Margi Franzel shop, will be small pink-covered tables. Attached to the pink skirts of the cloths will be red roses. The tables will be candlelit. The music of Bert Jekakis and Parisienne Trio will add appropriate musical atmosphere for models to promenade, while members and their guests sip French champagne or whatever their seating the guests were William Herrington, Jr. of Royal Oak and Alfred Geitner of Englewood, N. J.
