Girl Scouts Host Event for Troops

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Girl Scout Troop 433 of Conant School was host Feb. 21 for the "Thinking Day Celebration" of the Northwest Lakes neighborhood intermediate and senior Girl Scouts.

Marcia DuVal of Troop 350 acted as song leader and mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. J. E. Steele, neighborhood chairman, introduced the special guests, Mrs. B. Reagan, leader of Troop 258 of Farmington and one of the members, Mary Sue MacIvaine. Mrs. Reagan and Mary Sue exhibited some of the items that were made and showed the movie, "Journey Into Friendship."

Troop 994 conducted the flag ceremony and Troop 99 made the container for the Juliet Low World friendship fund collection.

Following a songfest of selections from the Netherlands, Sweden, Mexico, Scotland and Israel, the Scouts sang Indian taps to close the program.

WING LAKE

On Monday evening, Wing Lake PTO will hold a joint meeting with the Booth School PTO at the Booth School.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. with fine arts director for WJR, Karl Haas as the guest speaker. His topic will be, "How High is Your Brow?" and he will conclude his talk by playing some selections on the piano.

Also entertaining will be a boys' chorus, made up of about 40-50 fifth and sixth graders.

He Stands Corrected!

Pival and Ewald are sharp on the golf course and have frequent rounds together. Both are members of the Oakland Hills Country Club and live within minutes of the course.

Now, all golfers have their troubles occasionally (Player and Palmer have theirs.) Ewald's trouble last summer was a magnificent slice. Pival (neighbor, friend, partner or opponent) could no longer tolerate seeing Ewald connect with a whole of a tee-shot, only to watch it fade out of sight, two or three fairways to the right. He decided to do something about it.

He gave Harvey a special set of woods imported from England and no one, but no one, can possibly hit a slice with them. The clubs are new and polished, nestled close to old and familiar ones in Ewald's car trunk.

Related Celebration

January 27 is an important date for Mr. and Mrs. F. Robert Krue, 87 Nantucket Drive, Bloomfield Hills, for this is the anniversary of their wedding and the date when they usually entertain at a cocktail party in celebration. January's busy social whirl interfered with their plans, however, and the party was postponed until last Saturday night. The belated anniversary celebration turned out to be a pre-Lenten cocktail party for 60 friends. Bert Djerkiss provided accordion music for the guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Anderman, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doussaut, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ahern, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Reck, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Brodie and Mr. and Mrs. John G. Piceu.
