Subdivision Women Honor Guest at Valentine Tea

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER
MI 6-9716

One of the loveliest Valentine teas of the season was given by Mrs. Pauline Rose at her home on Pickwick Lane on Feb. 15 in honor of Mrs. Phoebe Simpson. Her friends in Huntley subdivision participated.

Amid a setting of hearts and flowers, they presented her with a lovely gift in honor of her birthday and to show their appreciation for her assistance in adjusting to a new community.

Among those present were Mrs. Donald Patterson, Mrs. Lloyd Backart, Mrs. Vern Larch, Mrs. Charles Bubby, Mrs. Walter Pahlak, Mrs. Don LaSage, Mrs. Fred Auch Jr., Mrs. Lloyd Jackman, Mrs. Ed Hannum, Mrs. Gordon Sellers, Mrs. A. E. Jennens, Mrs. Lawrence Mills, Mrs. Virginia Schneider, Mrs. F. Oakley, Mrs. Richard Sejnort, Mrs. Marcel Dunn, Mrs. Al McGuire, Mrs. L. E. Hostetter, Mrs. Kenneth Holloway, Mrs. Ted Sura, Mrs. Phil Pilibosian, Mrs. G. R. Angie, Mrs. J. Young, Mrs. John Wunch, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, Mrs. James Tobin, Mrs. Lloyd Reuter and Mrs. M. G. Avery.

MR. AND MRS. Joseph Travis of West Rutland are very proud of their first granddaughter, Charlene Marie, who was born on Feb. 15 at the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital. When they made their first call on her she raised both hands and feet in the air and did the twist. Her parents are Joseph and Patricia Travis of Elizabeth Street.

MEMBERS of the Brother Rice Club and their sons from Our Lady Queen of Martyrs met in the school gym last Monday night to explore two fields of endeavor—space and automotive. Leonard E. Butz, expert on space guidance systems, and a sales engineer with A. C. Spark Plug Co. spoke on the "Future in Space." An exclusive preview of the film entitled "The Secret Door" was shown. This depicted behind-the-scenes details with engineers at Ford Motor Co.

The West Beverly Hills branch WNFPA will hold its annual dessert card parties this week. This is the organization's sole fund raising activity.

Two of the gatherings will be held today at 1 p.m.—one in the home of Mrs. Robert Lakatos, 1851 Hillcrest, and another at the home of Mrs. Robert Engel, 1856 Riverside. The last of these parties will be held at the home of Mrs. Elgin Oehler, 31541 Mayfair Lane, Friday evening at 8.

IN OBSERVANCE of Catholic Book week, the students at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs presented demonstration - discussions Feb.

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Couple Visit in Florida; Take Cruise to Bahamas

GLORIA JESSIP
MA 6-3257

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Seontine of Autumn Lane returned home recently from a three-week vacation. Their first stop was at the Rutgers Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale which they made their headquarters while Dr. Seontine attended a convention in Miami.

Following the convention, the Seontines boarded a 130-foot sail boat called the "Polynesia" to cruise a day at the Grand Bahama and five days in Nassau.

CRANBROOK
In spite of Mr. Winter's latest gift, there was a large turnout at the recent meeting of the Cranbrook Village, North branch WNFPA. Mrs. Edward LaFette hosted the meeting in her Mainbridge Road home. Co-hostesses were Mrs. George Coary and Mrs. Robert Swearingen.

Mrs. Donald Curry was the guest speaker. She gave a report on the book entitled, "Clair De Lune", which is the life story of the composer Claude Debussy.

THE NEXT meeting of the branch will be held on Monday at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Gabler on Autumn Lane. Mrs. William Henry and Mrs. Earl Schmidt will act as co-hostesses. The meeting is scheduled for between 12 and 3 p.m.

Mrs. Julia Wade will conduct a class and the theme will be "Flowers Go To Our Heads." Mrs. Wade, who is noted in the area and has numerous pupils will instruct the members on how to design and make chapeaus for the coming season.

Since Spring is just around the corner (we hope) a flower arranging workshop has been conducted this month by Mrs. Claude Watkins. The members met on Mondays at the home of Mrs. Paul Pelletier on Northgate. This was the first project of this kind undertaken by the group.

LATHRUP
The Lathrup Women's Club will have a Girl Scout recognition day at their regular meeting on Monday. Members and guests will convene in the fellowship hall of the Lathrup Community Congregational Church at 1 p.m. Attending the meeting will be leaders of the 10 troops sponsored by the women's club, the neighborhood chairman, president of the Southern Oakland Girl Scout council and other guests.

Guest speaker will be the lecturer who illustrates the theme as he speaks, Arthur Sinclair. His topic will be, "The Lighter Side." Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Eleanor Fuston, chairman, and her committee which includes Mrs. Fred Dickman, Mrs. William Fletcher, Mrs. Edwin Grosse and Mrs. John Heaton.

Posting will be Mrs. Webster Owen, president of Southern Oakland Girl Scout Council and Mrs. E. Landner who is neighborhood chairman for Southfield One.

News Revealed

At a luncheon given at Oakland Hills Country Club Feb. 15 by Mrs. Walter J. Simons of Bloomfield Village, announcement was made of the engagement of Virginia Buttner and Hayward A. York. Classmates at Seaholm High School, Virginia was graduated from Western Michigan University at Kalamazoo and her fiancé is a graduate of Lawrence Tech. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hayward York of Bloomfield Hills. Virginia is currently a teacher in the Warren School system and lives on Bates St., Birmingham. She was the recipient of the Birmingham Garden Club scholarship for four years.
