

Hawaii to Be Home Of Bridal Couple

Wearing a crown of candlelight peau de soie, Patricia Kirk Coulter, daughter of Mrs. Shelby Preston Langston of Miami Beach, Fla., and Brig. Gen. John Theron Coulter, USAF, N.ATO, of Paris, France, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Lt. Michael Roger Neal McDonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward McDonnell of Old Orchard Trail, Orchard Lake, Mich. The military ceremony took place in All Souls Episcopal Church, Miami, where the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Bridal robes were distinguished by a sweetheart neck line, three-quarter sleeves and a bouffant skirt extending into a cathedral train. Hand-clipped appliques of Alencon lace from Patricia's debutante gown accented the skirt, sleeves and bodice. The multi-tiered, cathedral-length veil fell from a pill box, and the bridal bouquet combined white roses, tube roses and lilies of the valley.

Included in the wedding party were Betsy Langston, of Miami, maid of honor and step-sister of the bride; Lynn Derby of Mobile, Ala.; Dianne Fraid of Montreal; Evelyn Barns of Dallas, Tex.; Jan Kaufmann of Philadelphia; Nancy Yuelle, Edyth Shuey and Stephanie Boughton, all of Miami; Peggy McDonnell, of Winter Park, Fla., niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl; Thomas McDonnell of Palo Alto, Calif., was best man for his brother, and ushers included Miles Chaplin McDonnell, of Winter Park, another brother; John Gerkin III of Miami; Lt. Harry Hagerdy, Lt. Thomas Simlax, Lt. Thomas Feely and Lt. James Ryer, all of Columbus, Ga., and Lt. Richard Wevand of Bloomfield Hills.

Following a honeymoon in Nassau, the couple will motor to California, leaving from there for Hawaii where the bridegroom will be stationed.

Boy Scouts Plan Drive For Paper Collection

NITA HARD
MA 6-3221

Birds and daffodils aren't always the first harbingers of Spring in Franklin. The Boy Scouts of Troop 1011 plan their spring paper drive to coincide with the first flush of housecleaning, scheduling March 9 as a prelude to the new season.

This year, due to a shortage of new volunteers to assist in house-to-house pickups, chairman Jack Holmes of Ovid Drive announces that residents are requested to bring their bundles to the trailers which will be parked from 8 a.m.

to 4 p.m. behind the Franklin Community Church.

The available pick-up crews of dads and lads will be on hand to pickup paper and magazine bundles from residents who are unable to haul them to the trailer, or who will be out of town and will arrange to have their bundles out near driveways or in garages. Anyone wishing the pick-up service must contact Holmes prior to March 9.

SARA WEED, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weed of German Mill Road, hasn't been watching our local temperatures while working in Washington. Sara popped in for a weekend visit with her family and had to borrow warm clothes to manage wite trips to Ann Arbor and friends.

Mrs. Jack Roberts of Tweed Drive was merrily surprised Friday night when friends converged at her home to lend moral support on her birthday. Nine couples of the bridge club the Roberts' belonged to shared the occasion.

RON GARWOOD brought home a skier's trophy from the races at Nubs Nob last weekend. Ron won the Mark 2 race for Class C. Mrs. Faye Hauck doesn't know his name, but she'll never forget the dark-haired, well-mannered young man, about 12 who spent two hours clearing away her driveway and asked only 50 cents for the task. Of course, Mrs. Hauck straightened him out about the increased cost of manual labor.

The Montie Spindlers of Ramble Road entertained friends from Chicago this weekend. Former crewing buddies they had a wonderful time recalling experiences in past Mackinac sailing races.

To Be Wed

Marian McCosh, daughter of Mrs. Irene J. McCosh of Bloomfield Hills and Frederick I. McCosh of Southfield, is engaged to Donn W. Hodgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle T. Hodgett of Rockland, Me. The bride-elect was graduated last June from Katharine Gibbs and the bridegroom-elect is a senior in the School of Engineering at Yale University. Following graduation, he will attend Officers' Candidate School in Newport, R. I. A late fall wedding is planned.
