

Officers Named By Association In Annual Election

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN MI 7-2321

The Brues of Bloomfield Association elected its officers and committee chairmen for 1963 at a meeting held on Feb. 20 at the home of Neale Schermerhorn, president of the association during 1962.

Robert Loudon was elected president; Rita J. Bergmann, vice-president; and George Sims, treasurer. Mrs. Robert Donley will serve as secretary.

The chairman of the various committees are building, Richard Bergmann; membership, Harold Petty; road, Richard Gullid; civic affairs, Frank Price; and social, Barney Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler of Eastwood Road, Innes, attended a performance of "Camelot," with friends from Detroit, on Friday.

WALNUT LAKE
The Walnut Lake Women's Club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p.m. at Mabel's Herb Garden Shop, 2140 Walnut Lake Road.

Mrs. A. Dowd is chairman of the tea committee serving refreshments afterward. The tea will be assisted by Mrs. R. Banker, Mrs. K. Spriggle, Mrs. R. Eder and Mrs. K. Mills.

"PREVIEWS OF PROGRESS," the General Motors science show which has been shown in 29 foreign countries, was presented twice on Feb. 18 at the Walnut Lake School. One performance was given in the afternoon for the children and the other in the evening for the PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eder of Putnam Drive so enjoyed their recent visit to Pine Knob Ski resort, that they had dinner there again on Saturday. Friends from Southfield and Detroit accompanied them.

NEW ENGLAND ESTATES
Trooper Lawrence E. Miller of the Michigan State Police was guest speaker at the Feb. 19 meeting of the New England Estates Women's Association. Using a life-size dummy, he explained and demonstrated mouth to mouth resuscitation in rescue work.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lorenz Ahlgren, Blackburn Drive. Her co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert Blackburn, Mrs. Edward Carter and Mrs. Ray Whalen.

Four new members were welcomed. They are Mrs. Howard Bingham, Mrs. William Higgins, Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. Paul Lynskey.

Mrs. Gerald Berry of Portland Court is president of the association. Secretary-treasurer is Mrs. Robert Miller of Newland Drive, West.

KIRKWOOD
Monday was her day off from jury duty in Pontiac and Mrs. Fran Newell of 229 Laile Park had a hairdresser's appointment and numerous household chores to attend to. However, a friend was so insistent on taking her out to lunch that she finally gave in. Afterward, the friend suggested that they drop in on Mrs. Newell's daughter, Mrs. Frederick Henkel, Quanton Road, who had recently moved to a new home there which the friend had not as yet seen.

And that was the way in which the stage was set for the surprise birthday tea given for Mrs. Newell on Feb. 4th by her three daughters. When she walked into the house, she found her daughters, Mrs. John Vander Roest of 2560 Buckingham and Mrs. Robert Warner, 1492 Yorkshire, plus a small group of friends.

OVER THE WASHINGTON'S birthday weekend, Mr. and Mrs. John Cooke of Woodwind Drive had as guests her parents, Mr.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Mr. Toot is an account executive with the Detroit Insurance Agency. Mrs. Toot was graduated from Michigan State, where her sorority was Delta Delta Delta.

Brightening Their Wardrobes

"Spring May Be a Little Late This Year" but when it comes, the Episcopal Church Women of St. David's on Twelve Mile Road are going to be ready! The ladies attended their annual, two-day hat show and sale last week and everyone went home with at least one chic chapeau to brighten her wardrobe. Mrs. C. R. Norberry (left) and Mrs. E. J. Grosse were among those indulging in a try-on session.

New School on Display

Members of Christ Child Society opened their new school for retarded educable children a week ago to entertain at an open house. Dignitaries from the Archdiocese of Detroit as well as the Council of Beverly Hills and the mayor of Birmingham were invited to inspect the building and facilities as well as the extensive grounds bounded by Lahser Road and Thirteen Mile. Greeting Mayor Florence Willett (left) is Mrs. James Schmidt, Birmingham director of Christ Child.
