

Officers Named By Association In Annual Election

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 1-2324

The Iroquois of Bloomfield Association elected its officers and committee chairmen for 1963 at a meeting held on Feb. 20 at the home of Neale Schermerhorn, president of the association during 1962.

and Mrs. John White, of Paramus, New Jersey.

The Cookies are newcomers to Michigan, having come here last August from New Jersey. They have a 10-year-old son, Jeffrey, who is in the 5th grade at Meadow Lake School, and a daughter, Caryn, who will be two in March.

Have You Met...

Edward and Sue Jaegeri who moved into their home at 244 S. Williamsburg with their two sons, Michael, a Sealhorn student, and Patrick who attends Westchester School? The Jaegeri family moved here from Milwaukee, Wis. This is the fourth consecutive year the family has spent in a different home for Christmas. Ed is with Standard Oil. Sue has many interests, including ceramics, amateur acting, knitting and bridge.

Brightening Their Wardrobes

"Spring May Be a Little Late This Year" but when it comes, the Episcopal Church Women of St. David's on Twelve Mile Road are going to be ready! The ladies attended their annual, two-day hat show and sale last week and everyone went home with at least one chic chapeau to brighten her wardrobe. Mrs. C. R. Norbery (left) and Mrs. E. J. Crosse were among those indulging in a try-on session.

New School on Display

Members of Christ Child Society opened the doors of their new school for related educable children a week ago to entertain at an open house. Dignitaries from the Association of Detroit as well as the Council of Beverly Hills and the mayor of Birmingham were invited to inspect the building and facilities as well as the extensive grounds bounded by Cahner Road and Thirteen Mile. Greeting Mayor Florence Willett (left) is Mrs. James Schmitt, Birmingham director of Christ Child.

NAMED EDITOR

William D. Lacy has been appointed editor of the Collegian, Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich. The Collegian is the oldest weekly college publication in the state of Michigan. Lacy, a junior, has been actively associated with campus publications for seven semesters. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Lacy of Windsor Road, North Haven, Conn., former residents of Bloomfield Hills. Lacy is also a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon national fraternity.

DEAN'S LIST

Dean Nathaniel C. Kendrick of Bowdoin College has announced that Clayton K. Lewis, Jr., a member of Bowdoin's Class of 1963, has been named to the dean's list. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton K. Lewis, Sr., of W. 14 Mile Road, Birmingham.

AT HILLSDALE

Sharon Dittich, Donald McMaster and Fredrick Wickham are among the 22 new students attending Hillsdale College for the spring semester. Miss Dittich is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dittich of Chelsea, Birmingham; McMaster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMaster of Bellevue, Birmingham; and Wickham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wickham of Meadowlake Road, Birmingham.

PERFORMS BRAVOS

Gretchen Ruhl took part in the second annual Senior Arts Festival held at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass., Friday and Saturday. As her contribution to "63 and the Arts," Miss Ruhl joined another senior in a performance of Richard's "Variation on Haydn's St. Anthony Chorale." The work is for two pianos. Majoring in English, Miss Ruhl is the daughter of Mrs. E. Simon Ruhl, 606 Baldwin Court, and is a graduate of Birmingham High School.

DISTINCTION

Recipient of scholastic distinction this past quarter is Kathleen T. Mansfield who made the dean's list at Michigan State University. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Mansfield of Varcho Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Miss Mansfield is pledged to Zeta Tau Alpha. She plans to specialize in political science.

WALNUT LAKE
The Walnut Lake Women's Club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p.m. at Mabel's-Herb & Garden Shop, 2140 Walnut Lake Road. Member Mabel Schultz will give a talk and conduct a workshop on terrariums.

Mrs. A. Dowd is chairman of the committee serving refreshments afterward. She will be assisted by Mrs. R. Banker, Mrs. K. Springle, Mrs. R. Eder and Mrs. K. Mills.

"PREVIEWS OF PROGRESS," the General Motors show which has been shown in 22 foreign countries, was presented twice on Feb. 18 at the Walnut Lake School. One performance was given in the afternoon for the children and the other in the evening for the PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eder of Putnam Drive so enjoyed their recent visit to Pine Knoll Ski resort, that they had dinner there again on Saturday. Friends from Southfield and Detroit accompanied them.

NEW ENGLAND ESTATES

Trooper Lawrence E. Miller of the Michigan State Police was guest speaker at the Feb. 19 meeting of the New England Estates Women's Association. Using a life-size dummy, he explained and demonstrated mouth to mouth resuscitation in rescue work. He recently received the 1962 distinguished service award from the British area of the Chamber of Commerce for his work in this type of community service.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lorene Altigim, Blackburn Drive. Her co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert Blackburn, Mrs. Edward Carter and Mrs. Ray Whalen. Four new members were welcomed. They are Mrs. Howard Brigham, Mrs. William Higgins, Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. Paul Lynskey.

KIRKWOOD

Monday was her day off from jury duty in Pontiac and Mrs. Frank Newell of 222 Lake Park had a hairdresser's appointment and numerous household chores to attend to. However, a friend was so insistent on taking her out to lunch that she finally gave in. Afterward, the friend suggested that they drop in on Mrs. Newell's daughter, Mrs. Frederick Henkel, Quarton Road, who had recently moved to a new home about which the friend had not as yet seen.

And that was the way in which the stage was set for the surprise birthday tea given for Mrs. Newell on Feb. 4th by her three daughters. When she walked into the house, she found her daughters, Mrs. John Vander Rost of 2250 Buckingham and Mrs. Robert Warner, 1492 Yorkshire, plus a small group of friends.

OVER THE Washington's birthday weekend, Mr. and Mrs. John Cooke of Woodward Drive had as guests her parents, Mr.
