

Residents Holiday in Other Climates

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

North Adams area residents are experiencing a change of scenery, whether it be in a warmer climate or colder.

The Charles Mackays of Oakhill Drive have returned to the cold after basking in the Mexican sun for three weeks. They flew to Mexico City where they spent five days touring the city of Pyramids built by the ancient Toltec Indians, the Floating Gardens of Xochimilco and attending the bull fights. Then on the Acapulco and the El Mirador hotel for another five sun-filled days. While there they went deep sea fishing, water skiing, took cruise trips and attended the bull fights.

THE KENNETH Milnes of Candlestick Court spent last week on the ski slopes in Vermont. They motored first to Boston, where they left their son, Ken, with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Koch and then traveled on to Stowe, Vt. They were joined there by some friends, the Thomas Marshalls of Princeton, N. Y. After a few days they traveled on to Canon, N. Y. for more skiing.

PATRICIA ANN LEWIS, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lewis of Henhawk road, was married to Douglas Renaud of Detroit on the morning of Feb. 23 at St. Scholastica Church in Detroit. Their attendants were Charlotte Lewis, sister of the bride, and Gary Renaud, best man and brother of the groom. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Renaud of Detroit.

The wedding reception was held at the Botford Inn in Dearborn. The newlyweds will make their home in Detroit after the honeymoon. Among the 150 guests attending was Mrs. Gordon Lewis of Spencerville, Ohio, grandmother of the bride.

SHOWERS WERE hosted in February honoring Pat Lewis and her fiancé, Birmingham friends Miss Barbara Troons and Miss Linda Pawcett, co-hosted a miscellaneous shower inviting friends.

Another miscellaneous shower was hosted in Tecumseh, Canada, by Mrs. William George. Friends and relatives attended. The John McAvoy family of Oakhill Drive are looking forward to attending the icecapades on Saturday evening. One of the stars in the performance is their 19-year-old nephew, George Wolf of Detroit. George will be performing in a specialty number and in the chorus during the tour.

VISITING THE JACK Carrs of Charing Cross Road for a short stay last week was their son-in-law, Sam Zappia, of Dallas, Tex. The Zappias and their children, Frankie, Johnnie and Marie-Aline, moved from Birmingham to Dallas four months ago. They plan on returning in the summer for a reunion with their families.

Sue Carr has been spending much of her time on the ski slopes of northern Michigan. Between semesters at the University of Detroit where Sue is a junior, she joined a large group of U of D skiers and spent the week at Cabarae. Last weekend Sue and four area friends skied on the slopes at Gaylord.

THE DONALD Meads of Squirrel Road celebrated Mrs. Mead's birthday of N. Evansdale Road. The Mead children hosted a Sunday celebration in honor of the Meads 35th wedding anniversary. The Rock Callisons of Troy hosted a cocktail party and the Robert Hornes of Clawson followed with a dinner party.

The Bruce Hathaways of Oakhill Drive are proud grandparents of their eighth grandchild. She is Diana Joy, born in February to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Russell of Royal Oak. The Russells have two other children, Lynda, 5, and Blake, 3. Mrs. Russell is the former Donna Hathaway of Birmingham.

MR. AND MRS. Tony Konas of Avonhurst Drive announce the birth of a daughter, Susan Marie, on Feb. 13. They have one other child, William, 20 months. The Charles Travis family of Grand Rapids are newcomers to Satterlee Drive. Their children include Randy, 7, and Carrie, 5, pupils at Eastover School, and Mike and Tim, 3 year old twins. Houseguests visiting from Minneapolis, Minn. for the weekend are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pope.

NEW RESIDENTS on Kent Road are the Martin Walkers of Indianapolis, Ind. They have three sons, Martin, 13, attends Derby Junior High; Mark, 9, and Donald, 7, are students at Harlan. The family enjoys all sports. Walker is affiliated with the Chevrolet division of General Motors.

The Edward Powers II and their five-year-old son, Christopher, of Bellingbrook Drive are newcomers. Their move was from Evanston, Ill. Powers is a manufacturer agent in carpeting. They are looking forward to a spring visit of relatives Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Borgan of Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. David Myers and 10-month-old son, David, Jr., are newcomers to W. Orchard Hill Drive. Their move was from St. Joseph, Mich. Myers is in Detroit sales with the Whirlpool Corp.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Vicarious Trip to Spain

Members of Ruth Shain's class in international affairs have been deeply engrossed in Spain for the past few weeks so will be particularly interested in colored slides brought back from that country by Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Roehm of Bloomfield Hills. Mrs. Roehm (left) will show the pictures at the March 12 meeting which will take place, as usual, at the Birmingham Community House at 10 a.m. Guests are welcome. Mrs. Shain welcomed a sneak preview.
