Village Cubs Hold Yearly Presentation

Lathrup Village Cub Pack 1341 held its annual Blue and Gold Banquet at Lathrup School Feb. 14. Mrs. William Anderson and Mrs. Neil Thurwachter were in charge of the banquet. Warren Rushman, neighborhood commissioner, presented the charter to the pack. Cubmaster Neil Thurwachter presented the badges and gold and silver arrows earned to the boys. Wolf badges went to Robert Anderson, William Arin, James Cuavarrilla, Timothy Gleeson, Greg Hamilton, Dan Howard, Mark Mansfield, Richard Purchess, Roy Neveanu, Russell Schenck, John Shekerjian and Milton Thackaberry.

BEAR BADGES were received by David Auwers, Douglas Coup, Robert Denyer, Paul Detriase, Richard Forrest, Charles Sullivan, Steven Scott, Charles Thurwachter, Robert Tracey, John Tucker and David Unkefer.

Receiving their lion badges and Webelos patches were David Anderson, Richard Anderson, Brian Fish-tahler, Robert Garrison, Richard McGookin, Frederick Poch and Mark Schwalbe. The golden arrow award for the most parents attending went to the Webelos Pack.

Sound of Music Rang Through School

Music was the natural topic of conversation at a dinner honoring Carl Haas given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams of Birmingham Monday night. The dinner was followed by a talk and piano recital at the George Gough Booth Elementary School on Wing Lake Road sponsored by the PTO. Guest Speaker Haas spoke on "How High Is Your Brow?". He was followed by a boys' chorus made up of fifth and sixth graders who attend Booth. Pictured with Mr. Haas at right are (left to right) Mrs. Geneva Forslund, principal of Wing Lake School; Richard Thomas, principal of Booth, and Mrs. Haas.
