

Riverwoods Hears All About Israel

Riverwoods Garden Club learned more about Israel when Ferdinand (Bud) Thar was guest speaker March 5 at a meeting held in the home of Mrs. Fred Shetwell in Southfield.

Mr. Thar was the 1962 international Farm Youth exchange student to Israel. He is a student at Michigan State University and is active in 4-H activities.

Mrs. John Klett, International Co-operation Chairman, assisted Mrs. Eugene Hill and Mrs. Joseph McDougall as co-hostesses. Mrs. Andy Broad gave a talk on house plants.

Club Women Hold Annual Card Party

The Birmingham Womens Club held their annual spring Dessert Card Party in Demery's Birmingham Room on Feb. 26.

Decorations were carried out in the club's colors of green and pink. An arrangement of green chrysanthemums and greens between tiered plastic trees holding green and pink mints graced the table, between the silver tea services.

Individual table centerpieces, also serving as table prizes, were growing, green plants with pink and white plastic blooms wrapped in pink foil.

MINIATURE SCROLLS rolled and tied with ribbon bows were passed among the guests to inform them if they were the fortunate recipients of a door prize.

The door prizes were gift certificates purchased by the club from Moss Florist, Lake Jewelry, Wilson Drugs, Huston Hardware, LaBelle's Gifts and Demery's, and four of the club's cook books.

Mrs. Irvin Weiss of Beverly Road was general chairman of the party, assisted by the four departmental project chairmen, Mrs. Lee Mohr, American home; Mrs. F. Earle Steele, fine arts; Mrs. George Steelman, literature; and Mrs. Fred L. Sierdsdorfer, modern living.
