

Sunday Dinner

Problem Is Solved

Enough spaghetti and meat balls, Italian sausage, pastries and breads for 1,000 diners will be prepared for the second annual family-style dinner at Marian High School, Lahser and 14 1/2 Mile Roads, Sunday, March 10, from 2 to 6 p.m. The party is sponsored by mothers of children six years of age and under who will be served free of charge.

Advance reservations are requested and may be made with Mrs. Douglas Heiser, 3106 S. Stratford, Birmingham, or Mrs. John Raymond, 1011 Trowbridge, Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. E. S. Holt Is Hostess

Mrs. Earl S. Holt of Lathrup Village entertained at a luncheon party at the DAC recently to honor her future daughter-in-law, Gloria Ann Porter of South Bend, Ind., and introduce the bride-to-be to some of her friends. Miss Porter's marriage to David G. Holt is to take place in South Bend June 23. She is the daughter of Mrs. Harold O. Porter of South Bend and the late Mr. Porter.

Among the luncheon guests were Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Edwin Hana, also of South Bend, and Mrs. Harry Westphal of Michigan City, Ind.

Arriving with the feminine contingent from Indiana were Mr. Hana and Mr. Westphal, both spending the week-end at the home of Mrs. and Mr. Holt and their son.

Bride-Elect
Elizabeth Ann Garlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garlock of Chicago, Ill., is engaged to William J. Moriarty, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Moriarty of Park Ridge, Ill., formerly of Birmingham. The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin where she majored in occupational therapy and is now completing her internship in Chicago hospitals. Her fiancé is attending Law School at Northwestern University. An August wedding is planned.

Engagement
Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Fletcher of Lathrup Village announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Jean, to Robert Wagner of Birmingham. A Fall wedding is planned.

Study Club
