Fun for Children At Monday Movies Slated at School

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1842

"Movies on Monday" is the slogan chanted throughout the Eastover school area by the school children. On Monday, as the teachers leave school for a workshop meeting, parents will file in to take over the afternoon with fun for the children. The Walt Disney movie "Tombs" and a series of cartoons will be shown beginning at 1:15 p.m. Popcorn, orange drink and candy will be served the youngsters during movie time. The admission will be 50 cents.

In preparation for the event, posters were hung in the halls of the school announcing the attraction.

Planning the fun day are movie chairman Mrs. David Lewis and committee members Mrs. Elliott Cohen, Mrs. Harry Stover, Mrs. Robert Kickenbacher, Mrs. Donald Hyde, Mrs. Leo Art, Mrs. William Rader, Mrs. John Ziegler and Mrs. Alan Yates. Assisting the mothers will be the Girl Scouts, Leaders Club, Capers Club and the Safety Patrol.

A GROUP of Bloomfield Hills kids gave their waist lines the once over before Christmas and decided something had to be done. They formed a "Fat and Forty" athletic club that meets at East Hill Junior High on Wednesday evenings from 5 to 10 p.m. All men in the area anxious to shed a few pounds or flex their muscles for spring are welcome. The athletes have been playing basketball and will begin volleyball soon.

Among the dads working out are Alan Yates, Arthur Olson, Robert Neuman, David McClary, Raymond Conlon and Dr. Stan Reuter. Others are Robert Dewy, William Joyce, Ted Bioli, Dr. Bruce Squiers and William Grange.

OSAGE GARDEN CLUB members met at the Lenox Road home of Mrs. Edward Goralowski to hear guest speaker Mrs. Robert McCarty of Pontiac State Hospital, talk on volunteer work.

On Monday, the club had their last workshop of the year in a series of workshops at the Birmingham Community House. The members took rocks, gravel, twigs and figurines for the dish garden.

On April first, the garden club will gather to hear Harry Whang talk on "Symbolism of Oriental Gardens." New officers for the coming year will also be elected at this meeting.

Carole Brodie, daughter of the late Robert Brodie of Harrow Road, was elected "princess" of the current p.d.e.e. class of her fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon. Carole is a freshman at Michigan State.

IT WAS 10 days of skiing for Dr. and Mrs. George Smith of W. Orchard Hill Drive and a group of friends. On March 1, they left with the John Stouffer of Birmingham, the Jack Housens and the Don McGinnies of Royal Oak and flew to Aspen. They made the Nugget their headquarters while they were on the slopes. A trip was made to nearby Vail to join other area skiers for a day on the slopes.

Another area ski group journeyed to Colorado for a week of skiing the first of March. The group spent the time at Vail, a new ski resort, and included Dr. and Mrs. Paul Lahti of Tottenham Road, the A. W. Holcombs of W. Orchard Hill Drive, the Garrett Mowse of Bloomfield Village and the Jim Thorburns of Royal Oak.

HOME FROM Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Danto of Brookdale Drive. They spent their two weeks sunning and fishing at the Isle Morano on the Keys.

The Richard Jamesons of Saterlee Drive spent nine days at the Sea Ranch in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. recently. They were joined by Chicago relatives Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Houser for a few days of their vacation. Many hours were spent cruising on the intercoastal water ways, sunning and swimming.

THE DICK GREENS of Massfield Drive joined a tour of 100 couples in Chicago for a six day trip to Mexico. Their first stop was Mexico City where they visited the Shrine of Guadalupe, had luncheon with a former Brooklyn ball fighter, Sidney Franklin, of bull fighting before departing for one and a half days.

Three days were spent in the warm sunshine of Acapulco. While the men in the tour went deep sea fishing the gals took in the shops.

THE ELMER GERHARDS of Haddington Drive will be hosting a bon voyage dinner party on the evening of March 20, for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dussan of Carriage Road. The Dussans will be leaving for Spain in April.

The party decorations will have a Spanish theme. Invited are Birmingham-Bloomfield friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Lohie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams.

Friends gathered at the James J. Jones home on Charing Cross Road for a dinner party on Saturday evening. They included the Mary Hagerman of Hutterut Hill Drive, the Edward McWright of Terry Lane and the William Morris of Lincoln Drive.

MRS. RICHARD B. Mangus, 2943 Middlebury Lane, acted as hostess to the monthly board meeting of the Westchester Branch WNFCA. The husband-wife dinner dance at the Birmingham Athletic Club took the place of the February meeting.

Door prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Vince Kaptur 2951 Summerville Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyer, 548 Roanoke Drive; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peifer, 6311 Roanoke Drive. Co-workers on the committee for table decorations were Mrs. Max Quarles and Mrs. Melvin Goodell.

The board approved a proposal to make a donation toward "Pens for Friendship" sponsored by the Associated Country Women of the World to promote education in homemaking the world over.

THE BRANCH has awarded scholarships to the flower show school for judges to three of its members. Mrs. Raymond Glauser, 618 Westbourne Drive; Mrs. John Waite, 2943 Heathfield and Mrs. Gordon Loveland, 501 Westbourne Drive.

At the March 25th meeting, there will be a workshop on table arrangements using various special items.

This meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Anthony Keros, 2855 Berkshire Drive, at a time when the Westchester resident who is interested in garden club activities.

The planning committee for this meeting is Mrs. William J. Westman, chairman; Mrs. Byron Terrier, Mrs. John McCall and Mrs. David Halbeck will be assistants. The entire membership will participate in the Program.
