'Joke' Leads to Television Appearance

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

Mrs. John Petrakis of S. Wilburbury thought someone was playing a joke on her when she received numerous calls from a woman who seemed to call every time she wasn't home and left a message that she would like to have Mrs. Petrakis appear on her television program. It seems Jackie Crampton who has a program called "Bridal Fashion," had visited a number of the Bloomfield homes in quest of a subject for her program and was at the time interested in table settings. She found many of the homes were using lovely tableware from a firm of which Mrs. Petrakis is the owner. Mrs. Petrakis appeared on the program Feb. 24.

THE BLOCK CAPTAINS of the Cranbrook-Mage Association held a meeting on Tuesday at the home of Glenn Smith of S. Cranbrook Circle. Each captain was asked to bring his membership list for the year of 1962. On Thursday the social committee of which Jack Agar is chairman will hold a meeting. Grothen Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moffett are helping out on this committee.

This has been the fourth season Mr. Scott has been a performer at the Florida club. After a short visit at home he will then leave for Scottsdale, Ariz. where he will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Donato who are friends from Syracuse, N. Y.

St. Francis Parish of St. Regis parish held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. James Horwich, 7320 Greenwich Drive on Wednesday. Mrs. Robert Callow and Mrs. James McGuire were co-hostesses. A Lenten luncheon was served and a short business meeting held after which the ladies attending served canapés.

ON THE WEEKEND of Feb. 28, Mr. and Mrs. George Wirth of Clunbury had as their house guests, Mrs. Wirth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reiss, who reside in Cincinnati, O.

Nancy Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon of Clunbury, was one of six teenage models to appear in a fashion show which highlighted the tripartite luncheon held at Oakland Hills Country Club on Feb. 25. Nancy is a student at Marygrove College.

WESTCHESTER

Wonderful memories and many pictures are what Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Berman of Bradford Rd. brought back with them when they returned on Feb. 28 from an extended tour. The trip was in the form of business for Berman who is with the international department of Ford. They visited Hawaii, Singapore, New Zealand and Australia. All the countries were enjoying their summer season which made the trip quite pleasant.

Tom Minsinger is spending his semester break from North Wood Institute in Alma visiting with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Minsinger of Crosswick Rd. Tom has won recognition at college for a paper he wrote entitled "Discus vs." which deals with an individual suddenly awakening to the necessity of an education.

Two Brothers Race on Ski Slopes

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Many local residents attended the annual club races at the Griseo Ski Club held recently. Among those cheering for their favorites were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Clark, Jr. of Apple Lane.

The Clarks had invited 10 guests from Plymouth to join them at their ski lodge, and as they all stood watching the races, one guest asked Mrs. Clark, "When you have two sons in one race, which one do you cheer on to win?" And, in true motherly fashion, Mrs. Clark replied, "I just hope neither one falls down!"

Neither one did, and Rick who is 20 beat his brother Bob by only one second, four tenths—to win the club championship and a beautiful trophy. They were both competing in the senior men's division for age 18 and over.

Bob came in second and received a silver medal, and on the 16 of March he will defend his championship in the special slalom for all ages of both ladies and gentlemen.

WILLIAMSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Battison of Wayne were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders of Beaufort Drive at the recent DAC party and the premiere of "How The West Was Won."

On Tuesday, Mrs. Flanders entertained a table of six for luncheon at the DAC. A "Fashion-Show" was presented for the benefit of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Guests from this area included Mrs. John Flanery of Birmingham and Mrs. Charles W. Goudie of Franklin.
