

The 'Forgotten Fifty' Is on Its Uppers!

By MARTY CAHN
MI 6-2890

"Forgotten Fifty"—not wall flowers, not senior citizens, but an investment club comprised of sixteen members, the majority of whom are residents of Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham.

The initial F.F.F.F. signify top importance to the club for this is the Forgotten-Fifty-Fund and is accumulated by assessing members when late for, or missing, a meeting, and for such serious offenses as sneezing, coughing, breathing... anything to annoy the fund.

Because of a recent fun-trip, the F.F.F.F. is now depleted. Club members and their wives on the three-day fun trip were Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Fry, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Packer, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. O'Toole of Bloomfield Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Rinehart of Bloomfield Village; Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Manley, Jr. and Mrs. William M. Packer, Sr. and Mrs. Meville Rinehart of Detroit.

The group vacationed at the Villa Caprice, Lauderdale-by-the-Sea. Club member William M. Packer, Sr. entertained members, wives and their friends aboard his "White Heron," a motor schooner well known at the Old Club and in Michigan waters. Highlight of the fun trip was a stay at the Casa Linda, Daytona Beach, where the stock car races were being run.

Consequences... Fun Fund exhausted... Likewise members.

MRS. ERLE HENDERSON, the former Nancy Cope of Birmingham, arrived March 3 for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. George Cope. Mr. Cope has recently taken the position of general sales manager for the Wright Manufacturing Co. in Marietta, Georgia, where Mrs. Cope will join him late this month.

During Nancy's visit, she was guest of honor at a shower given by former Birmingham High School classmates Mrs. Wayne D. Goggin of Birmingham and Mrs. Barry Baldwin at Mrs. Baldwin's Royal Oak home.

Among those present were Mrs. Cope, Mrs. Walter Henderson, Mrs. Ebbie Goodfellow and Mrs. Ebbie Goodfellow, Jr., Nancy's twin sister. Mrs. Hiller Falk, came from East Lansing to attend the shower.

Also present were Mrs. Terry Wilson, Mrs. Dan Bearden and Mrs. James Burnie.

On Saturday, Nancy was an honor guest at a luncheon and baby shower at the Arlington Road home of Mrs. Thomas J. Bennett. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Bennett were Nancy Shannon of Detroit and Mrs. Encl Shannon of Columbus, O. Among those present were Mrs. William Ross, Mrs. Roy Pero, Mrs. Ralph Dunning of Flint and Mrs. Ray Henry of Lansing.

MRS. WILLIAM BROWN has returned to her Cleveland home after a four-week visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Sackfow, of Westwood Drive, Birmingham. Entertaining for Mrs. Brown started with a luncheon and bridge party at her daughter's home. Those present were Mrs. Philip Cartwright, Mrs. Clarence Hatch, Jr., Mrs. James Hastings, Mrs. Kenneth Berridge, Mrs. George Staudt, Mrs. Kenneth Sander, Mrs. William Bond and Mrs. Bond's mother, Mrs. Florence Tech.

Other parties in honor of Mrs. Brown, were a luncheon at Forest Lake Country Club, given by Mrs. M. S. Rosenberger; a luncheon at the Pine Knob Ski Club, given by Mrs. Robert Lauer, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Kenneth Berridge entertained at the Prince Edward Hotel in Windsor. Mrs. William Mitchell entertained

Engaged Pair Is Honored By Families

Mr. and Mrs. James D. McKinnon of Willow Lane, Birmingham, entertained at an evening party recently honoring their daughter, Lois, and her fiancé, Kenneth Christian.

Lois and Kenneth have just returned to Loyola University in Chicago following a short, mid-semester vacation in Junction City, Kan., where they were guests of Kenneth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Christian.

While there Lois was guest of honor at a tea given by Mrs. Christian at the Junction City Country Club.

at a dinner party at the Bloomfield Hunt Club, and a farewell dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Cahn.

TWO OF BIRMINGHAM'S best-dressed gals, Mrs. Jesse P. Judd and her daughter Nancy, returned to their Gleaners Road home on Tuesday night from a two-day shopping excursion. Schools, not fashions, were uppermost in their minds. Nancy, a senior at Bloomfield Country Day School, has until May to decide upon a college to enter next fall. Schools visited were Bennett Junior College, Millbrook, N. Y.; Rivercliff, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y. and Pine Manor at Wellesley, Mass.

I SHOULD LIKE to report on what went on at our house last Saturday night. Chet and I have a daughter named Cynthia Lane. Cynthia is called "Cinde" by friends, teachers and her parents. At the age of 14, a girl can be as demure about the spelling of her name, and we conform.

Getting back to Saturday... the floor of our family room can sleep four, comfortably. However, it was occupied on Saturday by six tired girls, encoined in sleeping bags. Kingswood School classmates, on the floor, were (with Cinde's descriptions):

Wendy Clark, "gives off sparks"; Susie Wilder, "seems a lot milder"; Kenna Pratt is "a real cool cat" and Gretchen Van Horn "with smiles, is adorned." A girl named Judy is sweet as tutti-frutti (what rhymes with Judy Conrad?).

After a gourmet dinner of hamburgers, French fries, relishes and do-it-yourself banana splits, we discovered that, now-a-days, kids prefer plain vanilla.

The group dined dinner by skating at Cranbrook Skating Club. Back at home there was pizza, palaver and pool (bumper), and pranks... Chet and I are glad that our floor capacity is limited to six sleeping guests.

Bridal Pair At Home In Royal Oak

Announcement is made of the marriage on Feb. 9 of Penelope Irene Pellow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Pellow of Balmistoe Road, Bloomfield Township and William Thomas Matby, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Matby of Royal Oak.

The 8 o'clock ceremony took place in the home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. Alan Jenkins officiating.

Pamela Kay Pellow was her sister's only attendant, and Harry Tillotson of Royal Oak was best man.

The newlyweds are at home in Royal Oak.

Local Girl Earns YWCA Citation

At a Salute to Youth program sponsored by the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit at Ford Auditorium Sunday, a hundred boys and girls received citations and trophies for their achievements.

Selected from some 800 entrants, the teenagers were awarded for accomplishments in categories including art, creative writing, dance, science, drama, music, scholarship, athletics, leadership and business initiative.

Receiving a citation for her achievements in creative writing was Barbara Seiden, 28533 Selkirk, Southfield.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements, announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

First speaker on the program will be Mr. Woolfenden, who will discuss "Why We Should Adopt the New Constitution." He will be followed by Mrs. Horace Sheldon who will speak on the library bond issue which Bloomfield Township residents will be voting on in the April election.

Mrs. Otis Dickey Will Be Hostess

William L. Kopp, superintendent of Oakland County Children's Center in Pontiac, will tell of the work being done there and will show slides of the Center when the Birmingham Rotary Annex meet for 1 o'clock luncheon Monday, March 18, at the home of Mrs. Otis M. Dickey, 547 Riverchase.

Those on the luncheon committee are Mrs. W. Douglas McKenzie, Mrs. J. M. Hardin, Mrs. Wayne Stettin and Mrs. Ross A. Wagner.

Dr. Ross Here For WNFGA Luncheon, Tea

Dr. C. Howard Ross and his wife journeyed from Ann Arbor to Birmingham Monday where Dr. Ross addressed the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association at the Community House. His subject was "Garden's Herbs and the Witch Doctor."

Dr. Ross is a practicing physician who specializes in geriatrics. He is also on the staff of the University of Michigan where he lectures to senior medical students on Medical Ethics and Medical Economics. His hobbies are history and gardening. He is particularly known for his keen sense of humor.

Dr. and Mrs. Ross were entertained at luncheon before the meeting by Mrs. George Dixon, Mrs. Robert F. Watt, Mrs. Marvin Katke and Mrs. Charles Davison.

Tea followed the meeting, with Mrs. Stewart Cram, Mrs. George Cram and Mrs. Robert F. Watt in charge.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Brown of Salt Lake, Ky., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jo, to Gary H. Willey, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Willey, Jr. of N. Cranbrook Road, Birmingham. A June wedding is planned.

Mrs. Dawson Is Hostess To Alumnae

Alpha Chi Omega alumnae met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Robert E. Dawson of Birmingham. As part of the sorority's annual Here Day observance, a day dedicated to community service, they had as their guest speaker William H. Boyd, director of community relations at the Plymouth State Home and Training School in Northville.

Mr. Boyd outlined services being rendered to mentally and physically retarded children at the school and suggested ways in which the group could be of help through volunteer and financial aid.

Also during the evening, members sewed surgical cloths for Pontiac General and elected officers.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Walter H. Esberg, Jr., Mrs.

Make Believe Enchants Young Party Goers

Susan Beavers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Beavers of Heston Road, Bloomfield Township, celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday at a "grown-up-ladies tea".

Young guests arrived in finery borrowed from their mothers, including such items as high heels, stoles and fancy spring hats. Make-up was used unsparingly, and so was hair spray!

Among the group were Ginny Ayers, Beth Barnes, Katy Crane, Christi Kraton, Nance Paulick, Helen Shroy, Karen Tarapata, Tammy Trimmer and Karen McWhirter.

Others included Regan Tate, Carrie and Kathie Hints and Susan's five-year-old sister Janie.

Arthur Land, Mrs. John Nielson and Mrs. Edwin L. Van Allen.
