

Big Splash in Paisley

Paisley, a perennial favorite of spring, was modeled by Mrs. Jack Gordon recently at a fashion benefit in the Oakland Hills Country Club. The large-patterned paisleys have been taking precedence over small paisley designs. Many of the styles are in shift dresses, which can be worn belted or unbelted, as you wish. Perhaps the best feature of all is their non-wrinkling fabrics, which means these attractive styles can go a-traveling with ease.

A Twist in Fashion

The twist is NOT the exclusive domain of teenagers, as peppy Mrs. Alan Pearce of Birmingham demonstrates. The cameraman caught her in action recently at Oakland Hills Country Club, sparkling in a lace dinner gown which, as every woman knows, knows no "season".

Wearing His Own Creation

If it's "designer clothes" you're looking for in Birmingham, a local men's shop has the answer, modeled here by the owner. The custom tailored suit is of natural-colored camel's hair in a two-button suit with a reverse-peak collar and an unusual shawl-collared vest.
