MRS. J. J. MALONEY

Bridal Pair To Make Home In California

At a ceremony solemnized March 9 in the First Baptist Church of Birmingham, Ruth Ann Lamprecht, daughter of E. R. Lamprecht of Los Angeles, Calif., and the late Mrs. Lamprecht and niece of Lt. and Mrs. Delye Service of Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows to Joseph John Maloney, son of Frank Maloney of Detroit and the late Mrs. Maloney.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a bouffant skirt, long, fitted sleeves and snug bodice accented by a scalloped neckline. Her Chantilly-trimmed veil fell from a double crown of white roses and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of Amazon lilies and lily. Her only jewelry was a drop necklace holding a tiny silver heart set with a diamond, a gift of the bridegroom.

MRS. HAROLD Schubert of Garden City was honor attendant, and bridesmaids included Susan Kilbury of Birmingham and Laura Schubert of Garden City. Renee Schubert was flower girl.

Harold Schubert was best man, and seating the guests were Jay Krimmel of Grosse Pointe and Robert Drury of Detroit.

Immediately following the 7 o'clock ceremony, a reception was given in the church parlors, where Mrs. Service greeted the guests in a royal blue pure silk jacket dress. Mrs. Joseph Palmeri, aunt of the bridegroom, was dressed in green brocade.

After April 1, the couple will be at home in Inglewood, Calif., where the bridegroom will continue his schooling.
