'Welcome' Sign Greet Newcomers

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

A large banner in bold red letters "Welcome Home Chuck and Jana" was stretched across the entrance of a new farm colonial on Massfield drive by friends on Saturday. The welcome sign was a warm greeting to the Charles Thompsons and children, Michael, Julie and Susan, when they arrived at their new home from Morton Grove, Ill. on Saturday evening.

The Thompsons had only been in the house a few hours when the same friends returned for a surprise "house warming party." In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Al Keough, Mr. and Mrs. John Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Balding.

On Wednesday Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Constance

Tamburino, arrived from Chicago. On the weekend Tamburino and Mrs. Thompson, father and mother-in-law, arrived from Chicago for a short visit.

NEWCOMERS TO Robison Lane are the William Fischer family of Cleveland, Ohio. They have four children: Lynn, a freshman at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio; Garry, a student at Bloomfield Hills High; and Christine and Pat, pupils at Eastover School. Fischer is a manufacturer's agent with Seaway Paper and Board Sales. The family they got used to in Chicago. In the group were Mrs. Thelma Lower, Mrs. William Papp, Mrs. Robert Fodaki, Mrs. Larry Dean, Mrs. Russell Bracwell and Mrs. Joseph Bradford.

THE THOMAS Gays of Whitney Court are back home after two weeks vacation at Marathon on Duck Key, Fla. Joining them there were Washington, D. C. friends, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson. During their deep sea fishing trips, Gay caught a jewfish weighing over 100 pounds and an 85-pound tarpon. A field and stream award was presented to Gay for snagging the tarpon. They took four days away from fishing to visit Pompano Beach. The David Nelsons of Hunt Club Drive have returned from two weeks at West Palm Beach, Fla. They flew down and joined a group that have been gathering annually in West Palm Beach for years. In the group that sunned, swam, went deep sea fishing and to the races were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Mast of Belleville Lake, and Mrs. Kellon's parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Gus Clarke of Lexington, Ky.

THE HUGO Gargers of Sussex Road hosted a pot luck supper for the St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Lenten Study Group on Tuesday evening. Would you be as casual when you pick insurance?

Perhaps you already have—without knowing it. When you buy insurance direct from an insurance company, you are, in effect, gambling that you will select enough of the right kind of insurance to fully protect yourself against serious loss. If your coverage falls short, you may be wide open to staggering law suits.

To make sure you get exactly the right kind of insurance tailored to your personal or business needs...and in the right amount, see an independent insurance agent or broker. He knows your insurance up-to-date—tells you about new and better policies being developed and assists you if you have a loss.

For insurance protection from a strong, reliable company...one that pays claims promptly and fairly...ask your independent agent about The Atlantic Companies.

Men of judgment buy Atlantic insurance; men of integrity sell it.

BUSY PAIR

Mrs. Orta B. Crego of Kings Gate Way, Bloomfield Hills, entertained at a luncheon and baby shower recently in honor of Mrs. Reginald Brown. Mrs. Crego's presence for the baby-to-be was a playpen which was beautifully decorated by bows made of pink and blue ribbons. The playpen served to contain other baby gifts.

Those present were Mrs. King Gates, mother of the honored guest; Mrs. Jack McPherson, Mrs. Irwin DeGrote, Mrs. Doran Dibble, Mrs. Edward Peterson, Mrs. Edward Addis, Mrs. James Sadler, Mrs. Richard Lindner and Mrs. David Crouse.

And more about the Cregos—In the world of bowling, the Peterson Classic is one of the oldest and most famous of all tournaments. Top-notch bowlers compete at this annual classic, which takes place in Chicago. Dr. Orta B. Crego of Bloomfield Hills and Joseph E. Paulus of Bloomfield Village, who had starting times in this event, were accompanied on the trip to Chicago by their pretty wives, Betty and Kitty, for the weekend of fun. A welcome "breather" for Betty Crego, who is in the midst of decorating their new Bloomfield Hills home.

LOOKING BACK

Classmates and buddies in the Birmingham High graduating class of 1929 were Dave White, Kirk Martin, Ed Purman and Ed Royal, Jr. The congenial group, accompanied by their wives, were reunited for potluck dinner at Dode and Kirk Martin's house back in 1961 at a party also attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Parrott, at which time the decision was made to continue their meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. David E. White, Westwood Drive, hosted the latest reunion and present at Saturday night's supper were Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Royal, Mr. and Mrs. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Purman Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. Clem Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Steding III and Mr. and Mrs. John McLean.

SOME RECORD!

Members of a Birmingham duplicate bridge club, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. G.
