Ford Motor Honors Voluntary Workers

Four employees of the Ford Motor Co. Tractor Division will be honored for voluntary service to their communities Thursday evening at a Community Service Awards banquet in the division's headquarters.

The four are Burdett W. Dzende of Southfield, James Henderson of Clawson, Walter W. Sewell of Washington and Louis R. Turf of Birmingham.

James Clarkson, mayor of Southfield, will be principal speaker at the banquet in the division's executive dining room. David Meeker, service and training manager of Ford's U.S. Tractor and Implement Operations, will be master of ceremonies.

DZENDEL, A PRODUCT design engineer in the Product Engineering Department, will be awarded a CSA plaque in recognition of his political, civic and youth activities in Southfield. As vice chairman of the city planning committee, he has helped formulate zoning ordinances and future planning for the city.

His other community services include membership in the Southfield Democratic Club, service in the mayor's advisory committee, the Golfview Homeowners Association and Cub Scouting. He also is treasurer of the Clarkson for Mayor Committee.

Turf will receive his CSA plaque in recognition of civic and Scouting activities in Birmingham. He is secretary of the Birmingham Estates Homeowners Association.

Local Ad Agency Wins 3 Awards

MacManus, John and Adams, Bloomfield Hills Agency, has won three of a possible six first place awards for outstanding advertising in the fourth annual competition sponsored by the Industrial Marketers of Detroit.

More than 70 entries by more than a score of Michigan agencies were entered in the competition. The awards were accepted for agency in ceremonies recently at Veterans Memorial, Detroit, by account supervisor Wallace J. Ehrlich, 3032 Westview Court, Bloomfield Hills and by account executives Dick Esser, Pontiac, Warren, Frorath, Detroit and Frorath, 945 Poppleton, Birmingham.

Winner of Cruise

Joseph Wierhicki of 6500 Vermont, Troy, is one of 200 automobile salesmen throughout the country who have been awarded a six-day Caribbean cruise for selling the most Plymouths, Valiants, Chryslers and Imperials last year. Nearly 11,000 salesmen employed by Chrysler-Plymouth dealers in 50 states competed in the annual retail sales competition of the all-star medallion salesman's club. This is the first year that Wierhicki has won the club's award.

B'ham Man Invited To Florida Meeting

H. B. Walker of 300 North Glenhurst has been invited to attend IBM's golden circle business and education conference at Palm Beach, Fla., this month.

Membership at this conference is in recognition of high standards of performance maintained over a period of years. Walker is data processing manager for IBM in the Detroit area.

Active in Scouting since 1955, Turf now is Birmingham community commissioner, a post which places him with responsibility for 12 Cub Scout packs, 10 Boy Scout troops and two Explorer Scout posts.

In addition to these four CSA winners, 34 other employees at Birmingham and the Royal Oak Equipment Plant are being recognized for their community services. The 34 are to receive their awards, a new award being presented for the first time this year to all nominees for Community Service Awards.

Insurance Executive Transferred Here
