

Council Contest Expected to Be Spirited in S'field

SOUTHFIELD—One of the most hotly contested races in the area will be fought out at the polls in the city on April 1.

Mayor James Clarkson will defend his post against Council President C. Hugh Johnson. Two men will compete for one unexpired council seat and eight others will compete for four council jobs.

Unopposed on the ballot will be Pat Flannery, running for re-election as clerk, and Clara Lane, incumbent treasurer.

For the four council seats, the three candidates getting the highest number of votes will get four-year terms. The fourth highest will win a two-year term.

Alex C. Perinoff and Tom P. Saks will both seek the seat that expires in April, 1965. Four incumbents will face four other contestants for the quartet of council posts.

The incumbents are Clarence A. Durbin, Thomas Rowley, O. David Edwards and John J. Hollywood. The others aspiring to the jobs are Jean McDonnell, Will J. Oliver, James E. Wells and James Julian.

Babe Ruth, we only have about 190 boys. A $5 contribution from parents of each boy would not be enough to implement our program. That is why we solicit funds from merchants and businessmen.

"I don't know why Little League would take a job at us on fund-raising. We have been doing the same thing for years. It may be because they don't have anyone on the board now that was there when we made our agreement," Bates added.

ANOTHER CHARGE, made by the rival Pony & Colt organization, accused Babe Ruth of "misrepresentation of facts" in recruiting letters sent out by the league.

Pony & Colt officials also produced a letter from Babe Ruth signed by one of their own managers, who quit the Babe Ruth program to join the new organization.

They also object to portions of the recruiting letter that say "diamonds at Seaboard, Dealy and Groves" have been assigned to Babe Ruth; that "there will be three six-team leagues (six new teams)" in Ruth baseball; and that "Babe Ruth managers and coaches are former college or professional baseball players."

Pony & Colt officials said no diamonds have been assigned yet and the "six new teams" is a matter of conjecture.

BATES ANSWERED that the manager whose name was used on the letter had not indicated at a Babe Ruth meeting three weeks ago that he would not be back this year.

"At that time he indicated that he was with us," said Bates.
