Visitor From Capital Honored.

Birmingham League of Women Voters had the honor of playing hostess last week to LWV National President Mrs. Robert J. Phillips of Washington, D.C. Following a luncheon March 18 at Botsford Inn, to which all Michigan leagues were invited, Mrs. George W. Talburt of Puritan Road entertained for Mrs. Phillips and local league members at a dinner party in her home. With the visitor it's hostess Mrs. Talburt (left) and Mrs. George Hilfinger.

Localites to Attend Ivy League Concert

Detroit will be host to the Columbia University Glee Club when it presents an afternoon concert on Sunday, March 31, at McGreggor Memorial Auditorium. The 50-voice Glee Club, one of the oldest in the Ivy League, will stop in Detroit as part of a ten-concert tour ranging from New York to Denver. Directing the Glee Club will be Bailey Harvey, President of the Interscholastic Musical Council and conductor of the General Motors Chorus.

ACCORDING TO Parbury P. Schmidt of Birmingham, President of the Columbia Club of Michigan, there will be a Columbia University-Barnard College reception following the concert. Each Club has mailed special invitations to high school students interested in considering Columbia and Barnard for their college training, and is urging all with an interest in the two New York schools to attend. Currently, eight Detroit-area men are at Columbia and three women are at Barnard.

"This is one of the finest college glee clubs in the nation, and we hope our concert will help acquaint Detroiters with Columbia and Barnard," Mr. Schmidt said. "The proceeds of our concert will go in large part toward our scholarship activities."

AMONG THOSE helping with concert arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Turunen, 488 Wooddale, Bloomfield Township; Mr. and Mrs. John P. Neville and Allen B. Crow, Detroit; Alan L. Gornick, 250 Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills, and George A. Jacoby, 245 Puritan Road, Birmingham.

Members of the Barnard College Club helping with the concert are Mesdames Parbury P. Schmidt, president, 6200 Wing Lake Road, Birmingham; John F. Gregory, 7230 Cedarcroft, Birmingham, and Charles J. Holt, Jr., Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gossett, formerly of 420 Goodhue, Bloomfield Hills, had been active in making arrangements for the concert prior to their departure for Europe.

Woman's Club Plans Annual 'Men's Night'

"Men's Night", a once a year special for the husbands and acquaintances of the members of the Village Woman's Club, will be held April 8 at 6:30 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Dr. Harm Jan de Blij of M.S.U.'s African Studies Center will be the speaker. His vast knowledge of Africa, his vitality and his facility of expression have made him one of the most popular participants of the club's "History in the Making" series, now in its third year.

DR. DE BLIJ, a Dutch-born scholar, studied at the University of Johannesburg. He was a member of that city's symphony and city council. His recent book, "Africa South," gives penetrating insight into the problems of that country. During his travels last summer through Africa, he came once again into close contact with this "emerging giant" with its many groups in ferment. He speaks knowledgeably and feelingly on the problems of this vast continent.

This Men's Night program — first in the new clubhouse — will be preceded by dinner in a decor arranged by Mrs. LeRoy W. Dahlberg and Mrs. John W. Shenebield. Mrs. William H. Baldwin
