Christmas Decor Dismantled with Touch of Spring

A touch of spring with a hint of winter was enjoyed by the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Free Sunday when they observed an annual custom and took down the decorations of their outdoor Christmas tree.

Each year they wait until shortly after the advent of spring to do so. This year's celebration took the form of a buffet supper. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dickenson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kilpatrick, Dr. and Mrs. F. N. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nyland, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Eklund, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rows, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilardy and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ludington.

The Free's live on Morningview Terrace, Bloomfield Village.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational new weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

MSU Fraternity Names Local Girl As Sweetheart

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Linda Rosen, daughter of the Nels Rosens of Quanton Road, Peabody Orchards, has been elected the sweetheart of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity at Michigan State University. She will reign over their annual spring dance and various other activities.

Linda is a freshman at MSU, having graduated from Bloomfield Hills High School in 1962.

GILBERT LAKE
Returning to their Glencoe Estates homes last week were Mrs. Frank Taylor and Mrs. Donald R. Sturdivant after a two-and-one-half-week vacation in California. Mrs. Taylor of Blanford Drive and her daughter, Mrs. Sturdivant of Burnham Road, made Pasadena their home base while they took in points of interest. Mrs. Taylor was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz and Mrs. Sturdivant, and her three year old son Dean, were the guests of Mrs. June Vick, both former friends from Ohio.

After enjoying such spots as Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm, Hollywood and Beverly Hills, Mrs. Sturdivant was welcomed home by her older children and husband with a dozen roses, a cake, and a house decorated with balloons and colored lights.

Mrs. William Neef of Gilbert Lake Road, Mrs. James Cahill of Peabody Orchards and Mrs. George Savage of Detroit returned last Monday from 10 relaxing days at the Southern Seas apartments at Lauderdale-by-the-Sea.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH
Eugene Johnson, superintendent of the Bloomfield Hills Schools, will be the honored guest at the April 1 meeting of the Conant School PTO. Johnson will give an informative discussion on such matters as curriculum, how books are chosen, what influences are brought to bear to change the text and many other subjects of interest to parents.

A question and answer period will follow Johnson's talk.

Lathrup Pair Wed In Church Service

At a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon in North Congregational Church, Susan Eleanor Ackles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burlin Harris Ackles, Jr. of Lathrup Village, spoke her marriage vows to Ralph Everett Burdick II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamlin Burdick also of Lathrup Village.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a semi-sheath gown of bouquet taffeta. The bodice was appliqued with Alencon lace and embroidered with seed pearls. A satin border accented the detachable diamond cut train. Her bouffant veil of imported French silk illusion was held by a cluster of tiny blossoms.

CAROLYN Popovici of Grosse Pointe Farms was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Betty Ackles, sister of the bride; Mrs. James Smyles of Lansing and Mrs. Ralph Gerdamer also of

MRS. R. E. BURDICK II

Lansing. Their sheath dresses of Oriental sheer turquoise fabric were styled with an old maid at the back, and an empire effect was created by a band that circled the waist. Their headpieces were little bows of matching fabric which held butterfly veils.

Four-year-old Sara Woodrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodrow, was flower girl, wearing for the occasion beige silk with a Belgian lace bodice.

Burlin Harris Ackles III, brother of the bride, was best man, and seating the guests were James Smyles and Ralph Gerdamer of Lansing and Robert Woodrow of Wayne.

Following a reception at Oakland Hills Country Club, the couple left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan. On their return, they will be at home in Lansing.

Only Fresh Vegetables Give You Fresh Flavor

An obvious statement you say? Perhaps. Yet, how many restaurants serve you fresh vegetables rather than frozen or canned? Very few. Greenfield's does offer you fresh vegetables whenever possible. Fresh may cost more and additional labor in preparation is needed ... but your enjoyment of the truly fresh flavor makes it all worthwhile.

Some of the fresh vegetables now available are green beans, broccoli, beets, spinach, carrots and cauliflower. During Lent you'll especially enjoy a serving of fresh vegetables. Or ask for a Greenfield's vegetable plate.
