FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Welcome New Members With Glamorous Supper

NITA HARD M.A. 6-3224

Exotic foods like Dashi, Tempura and Cucumber Kneenches from the rim of East Asia will be served in Franklin Sunday at 5:30 p.m. at the Franklin Community Church.

This is the savory part of a special evening to welcome more than 100 new members. The commissions on membership and Evangelism, through the joint efforts of Mrs. Robert Jessel, Mrs. Robert Koch, and Mrs. Hugh Ingall, will be hostesses. Featuring foods on a potluck basis, from Hong Kong, Taiwan, Korea, and Okinawa where the missionaries, local ladies will be mailed copies of recipes before-hand to prepare for the evening. Sound films of all these places will also be shown and the social hall of the church will be decked out in displays typical of these lands.

MRS. PHILIP PRICE of Colony Hill has left for a visit with her daughter in New England. It's spring vacation for college kids. Dan Dooler and his domestic, David Byers, came from Missoula, Mont. and the state university there.

John Gierer of Seneca is also entertaining a classmate and Purdue friend, a young man from Iceland.

Larry Hard is home from Amherst College, Mass. all freshly pledged to Alpha Delta Phi.

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Follow Trip to New York With Week End of Skiing

GLORIA JESSUP M.A. 6-3257

After a month's separation while as president of Michigan Owens, he toured Denmark, France, England and Germany on business, Roy Gill and Mrs. Gill of Cranbrook spent five days in New York City. They attended "Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolf?" laughed with Sid Caesar in "Little Me" and thoroughly enjoyed the three-foot puppets of "Les Pouspées de Paris."

After returning home they doctored their evening clothes and gathered their ski equipment and joined the Tom Robinsons at their ski cabin near Gaylord for a week end of skiing.

The Tom Robinsons of Fall River spent last week end skiing with their children, Christopher, 10, Karen, 9, and Jamie, 6. They used what they jokingly called their "A-frame" as a home base while they tried the various slopes near Gaylord.

CRANBROOK Spending a final ski week end at the cabin they rented at Cadillac for the season were Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson of Cranbrook Creek. Also having to see the season were the three Robinson boys, David, 16, Peter, 9, and Jim, 6.

SOUTHFIELD Leon Avidisian, chairman of the Southfield Parent - Youth Guidance Committee, spoke at the Southfield Kiwanis dinner meeting last week. He explained that the Parent-Youth Guidance Committee was formed by Ordinance No. 29 of the City of Southfield, and he also touched on what the committee has accomplished in the past three years and what it hopes to accomplish in the future.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Southfield was represented by Ralph Bonanata, who is treasurer of the group, at the Kiwanis meeting held March 20. Bonanata is a CPA and is associated with Arthur Anderson and Co. of Detroit.

Tuesday evening there was a Kiwanis divisional meeting in Birmingham, with all the clubs in the division being represented by their presidents. The presidents gave reports of the local club activities for the year.

CRANBROOK Dr. and Mrs. Richard Seointine of Autumn Lane hosted a special meeting of committee heads last Wednesday evening. Approximately 30 residents of Cranbrook Village north gathered for the association from Cranbrook Village Association Number Two to Cranbrook Village North Association.
