

City to Share Cost Of Crossing Guard

Birmingham city commissioners Monday night agreed to share the cost of a school crossing guard at 14 Mile and Melton with Royal Oak.

Each city will pay 50 per cent of the guard's wage. Birmingham's share for the 1963-64 school year will be $450.

The need for a crossing guard was brought to the attention of the police department after a six-year-old boy was struck by a car on Feb. 27.

The youth, Steve Roche of Royal Oak, was on his way to classes at St. Columban School in Birmingham and was crossing 14 Mile Road in the crosswalk when he was hit.

AT THAT TIME the traffic signal was manually controlled but was not working properly and was flashing amber. The school's janitor, who was assisting the children in crossing the road, was unable to make the signal work properly.

Two schools, St. Columban and Our Shepherd Lutheran, will be serviced by the new guard. Approximately 100 children cross 14 Mile at Melton each day.

KEEP UP TO THE MINUTE!

- EASTER—
Beautiful ceramic BUNNY EGGS (made in Birmingham)—$2 each.
Egg-shaped CACTUS GARDENS to delight the youngsters—89c each.
PUNCH 'N' GRO SEED STARTERS. Simply add water and follow instructions—49c each.
- ROSE PLANTS—Pre-planted, potted roses by BURR ROSES (See ad in Sec. D, page 8).
- The IMPORTANCE OF WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.
WHY IS IT SO IMPORTANT?
BECAUSE OUR SHOP WILL BE OPEN ALL DAY WEDNESDAYS From Now Until (it depends on you)
- DORMANT SPRAY—
Anytime BEFORE growth begins, and you can't depend on 24 hours before freezing temperature. A most valuable control for annihilating the productive eggs, larvae scales, etc., that will develop into annihilating bugs and caterpillars.
- LAWN DEVELOPMENT
a) Most important—FERTILIZERS (see ad in Sec. D, page 8).
b) Use 20# to 1000 sq. ft., or you are under-doing it.
c) Crabgrass controls are vital, but should be applied AFTER cleaning and fertilizing procedures.
- Little time for humor these days. We are—and you should be—down to brass tacks, because THIS IS THE TIME TO MAKE YOUR LAWN!

even operate as racketeers; often their members are unable to get rid of them ... and too often government won't help.

The Destiny of Mankind rides upon the written and the spoken words of this earth's nations' leaders. What they say and do creates, very largely, the matrix into which are molded the economic, political and social environments that place millions in bondage and provide the blessings of freedom to others. Freedom of will will need to be defended ... defended ... defended ... for the cost to mankind of winning it was beyond conceivable material price!!!!

A few weeks ago Florida held statewide elections to select future members of its legislature. On election day, Feb. 26, it rained very hard most of the day, over much of the state. Result: comparatively speaking, a mere handful of its eligible voters went to the polls. Observation: thus do the processes of freedom's right-to-select lawmakers succumb to the heaven-sent raindrops that, in and of themselves, are so necessary to mankind's physical survival! (This same condition, alas! can also do prevail over the entire U.S.A. Fickle and capricious and often lacking in self-sacrifice are freedom's presumed defenders!)

"Dad," asked Jimmy, "do you have any work for Eddie and me to do around the house? We need some more money to buy a new football."

"Sorry, son," said his father. "Can't think of any chores for you to do now."

"O.K.," returned the boy after a brief huddle with his friend. "Then how about putting us on relief?"

ON THE Democratic side of the ledger, Eugene B. Power was re-elected to the U. of M. regents, Leonard W. Woodcock will serve as their don mother, Mrs. Ray Kasabian, and Boy Scout George Maxted, the quartet descended upon Shain Park one afternoon. The boys, Richard Hyland, Berry Stewart, Matt Duff and Ed Kasabian, spent a good share of the afternoon picking up papers, broken bottles and other trash. Assistant City Manager Robert S. Kenning glanced out of his second-floor window in the Municipal Building and saw the boys hard at work. Kenning dispatched a police officer to the scene to congratulate the cubs for their fine work.

DEMOCRATIC officials were still considering late Wednesday the possibility of asking for a recount. Secretary of State James M. Hare sent telegrams to the county clerks urging them to take precautions in securing ballot boxes and voting machines.

The state canvass must be completed within 40 days of the election, but officials hope to have the job done by April 19.

HE SAID the decision to discharge the Kings had been reached by the party's executive committee some time ago. It was decided after the November election to keep Mr. King on a full-time basis because of the importance of the spring election, he said.

W. O. Briggs, III, public relations chairman for the Oakland County GOP, will now handle much of the work on a volunteer basis, Slater said.

IN AN EARLY Tuesday morning statement Gov. Romney termed the adoption of the constitution a "citizens' victory."

Mechanical errors in the tabulation of Oakland County votes had cast a shadow of doubt on the adoption of the constitution.

About 20,000 of the votes were "lost" for several hours early Tuesday morning.

The missing votes caused one of the state's major news agencies to issue a bulletin saying the document had been rejected. The error was corrected about 3 a.m. after many of the people either for or against the constitution had gone to bed happy or dejected.

ON THE nonpartisan State Supreme Court ballot, Oakland County voters supported the re-election of Justice Eugene F. Black with 57,813 votes.

They also cast 58,815 votes for Paul L. Adams to aid his return to a seat on the high court.

Bits of Birmingham

Four Cub Scouts from Den No. 5 at the Baldwin School took it upon themselves recently to help the City of Birmingham with its spring cleaning. Accompanied by their den mother, Mrs. Ray Kasabian, and Boy Scout George Maxted, the quartet descended upon Shain Park one afternoon. The boys, Richard Hyland, Berry Stewart, Matt Duff and Ed Kasabian, spent a good share of the afternoon picking up papers, broken bottles and other trash. Assistant City Manager Robert S. Kenning glanced out of his second-floor window in the Municipal Building and saw the boys hard at work. Kenning dispatched a police officer to the scene to congratulate the cubs for their fine work.

The four-year-old Ullman quadruplets of Centerline (Helen, Martha, Marian and Catherine), visited a Birmingham department store Tuesday to select new Easter outfits, courtesy of the Zonta Club of Detroit. Also being outfitted were their sisters, Louise, 5, and Beatrice, 3. Final fashion decision: The quads chose pink dresses; their sisters, blue. Accompanying them were mother Mrs. Chester Ullman and three Zonta Club members, president Mrs. Betty Stewart, Mrs. Mary Irwin and Mrs. Ida Wholke.
