fornia, where both are enrolled in San Diego State University. Formerly a student at the University of Southern California where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alan is currently majoring in Journalism at Wayne State. Martha attends the University of Michigan, where she is majoring in English.

At a cocktail party given Saturday in their home, Dr. and Mrs. James Blodgett of Crosswick Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to James Skow, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Skow of Toledo, O.

A graduate of Bloomfield Country Day School, Carol is presently a sophomore at Oberlin. Her fiancé is a graduate of Oberlin and is now in medical school at Ohio State. Date of the wedding will be announced later.

18 Sixth Graders Attend Meeting Of 4-H Group

Eighteen sixth grade girls from the Westchester area attended their first county meeting of the 4-H Club at the Pontiac Central High School on Saturday. The young ladies were accompanied by their mothers. A newly formed group last fall, the members have been under the direction of Mrs. Jack Burrell and Mrs. Albert Peifer, co-leaders of the group.

Saturday had been designated as achievement day among 4-H members and as their first assignment the Westchester group presented posters depicting what they had learned from their previous meetings.

At the present time, the girls are preparing Easter baskets which will be distributed to the senior ladies at Lapeer. They are also engaged in a sewing project which is being supervised by several of the mothers of the girls.

Roy D. Craigs Return Home From European Trek

Dr. and Mrs. Roy D. Craigs, 508 Park, returned March 12 from a European vacation. They visited London, Paris, West Berlin, Rome, Venice, the Riviera and Madrid. This was Mrs. Craigs' first trip to the continent and she particularly enjoyed Venice. The Craigs saw the famous wall dividing East and West Berlin. "It's a morbid sight," says Mrs. Craigs, who describes it as eight feet high, topped with barbed wire and hung here and there with swaths marking the location where someone had died in a futile attempt to escape to the West.

Mrs. Craigs is the owner of the Cindy Kay Shop on West Maple named after her daughter, Cindy Kay, a sophomore at Seaholm High.
