BLOOMFIELD WEST

Couple Score High At Bowling Party

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sweeney of Newland Drive East captured the high family score at New England Estate's annual bowling party on March 22. Sweeney also bowled high score among the men.

Tying for first place among the women were Mrs. William Higgins of Newland Drive East and Mrs. Ed Girk of Newland Drive West.

Sixteen couples participated in the event.

THE NEW ENGLAND Estates Garden Club meets tonight at 8:30 at the home of Mrs. Gerald Berry, 4229 Portland Court. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Fred Hickley and Mrs. Ray Whalen.

Three purple pansies are in bloom in her yard, reports Mrs. Robert Donley, 6050 Bramoor Trail. This is the second year this has occurred, she says. The pansies seem to lie dormant under the snow, the buds opening up as soon as the snow has melted away.

Mrs. Robert Clifford, Kingsmill Drive, invited 20 friends to a "crazy hat" luncheon on Wednesday. Each guest appeared in a creation of her own, using paper plates or any material that sparked her imagination.

Making their first communion on March 24 at St. Owen's Church were Barbara Ingham of Woodwind Drive, Michael Mielock of Quorton Road and Christine Hajjar of Kingsmill Drive.

That afternoon, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hajjar held an open house for "Christy" which 36 family members and friends attended.

Former neighbors from Milan, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Duane Schultz, and their three children spent a recent Sunday with the Frederick Henkel family on Quorton Road.

PINE LAKE

In Oklahoma City this past week, was Lester W. Utterback, principal of Pine Lake School. He attended the annual convention of the department of elementary school principals of the National Education Association.

WALNUT LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. William Crorey and family of Putnam Drive returned recently from a weekend spent in the Akron area. Bill, Mark, Kim and Karen enjoyed visits with both sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Crorey of Barborton and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Offhaus of Rex Lake.

Back from a skiing trip are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman, Putnam Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, Bellvine Trail. The couples spent a week at Nobles Nob near Harbor Springs.

Over on Ogden Drive, at the J. Patrick Kanes, it's a daughter, Kelly Margaret, who has a big brother, Patrick.

NEW ENGLAND ESTATES

Randy McDonald, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald of Newland Drive East, won a three-day trip to Florida in a recent metropolitan area newspaper contest. Along with 89 other winners, Randy flew to Tampa on March 28, his first plane trip. That afternoon the boys had lunch with the Tigers at Lakeland and saw them play and watched a second game on Saturday. Randy is now a graduate at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School.

BRAES

A new neighbor from Richmond, Va., has been welcomed on Eastmoor Road. Mrs. Ralph Gordon Smith was guest of honor at a coffee given by Mrs. Clarence Myrold on Wednesday. Stopping in to say "hello" were Mesdames Red Hawley, Lynn Barber, Richard Guillot, John Leigh, Art Brooks, Robert Donley, Harold Petty and Spyro Spiteri.

The Myrold home was also the scene of a dinner party on Saturday in celebration of three birthdays—Clarence Myrold's, Don Nicholson's and Harold Day's. In addition to the Nicholson's who live in Northville and the Days of Rochester, guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Stroud of Redford and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Walker of Auburn Heights.

MRS. SPYROS Spiteri, Bramoor Trail, returned on the 26th from a visit in New York City. While she was away, 11-year-old Paula Spiteri cooked dinner and kept house for her father. Home from college on spring vacation is Lynn Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eisen, Eastmoor Road. Lynn is a sophomore at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

John Fraser returned to Purdue University on the 28th after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser, Kilbrennan Road.
