Birmingham Family 'Adopts' Two Boys Under Foster Plan

Two boys, 12-year-old Alberto Phabu from Burma and 16-year-old Iruku Rayyappa from India, were "adopted" recently by Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nowak and their two-year-old legally adopted son, of 16931 Kinross, Birmingham.

Both new sons are being helped by the Nowaks through the Foster Parents Mission Club, a group dedicated to aiding overseas orphans.

"Neither Alberto nor Iruku will leave their native countries," said Josephine Bibik, FPNC president, "but the aid the boys receive and the knowledge that someone is really interested in them will truly make them feel they are members of the Nowak family."
