High 'Y' Scorer

Gary Smith, who scored 198 points in 10 games for First Presbyterian in the Birmingham YMCA League, receives a trophy from Con Ekken of the Y. Smith, the league's high scorer, was named to an all-star team along with John S. Bigler, St. James Episcopal; John M. Brown, First Baptist; Robert S. Douthett, Terry B. Henderson and John W. King, St. Andrew Lutheran; Jerry A. Lohla, First Presbyterian; Thomas Montgomery, First Methodist; Thomas E. Schmoer, First Baptist; and Leo Renault, St. James. The cagers were fêted at a banquet at St. James last week.

Springdale Picks Officers for '63

Planning for a record year of golf participation, John Strachan, newly elected president of the Springdale Golf Advisory Board, announced the committee chairman for the year at a meeting of the board at Eton Park last week.

Committee chairmen named were Jack Patterson and Irene Gowin, tournaments and handicap; Jim Simpson, membership; Ed Wassel, rules; Bob Gent, greens; and Lou Sharkey, public relations.

ALSO ELECTED were: Forest Shea, vice president; Mary Helsen, treasurer, and Gretchen Saam, secretary.

Elected to the board for three-year terms were Swede Erickson, Don Fouracre, Gowing, Seymour Hamrick, Carl Lemle, George Weeks, John Wessie, Dave Piggott, Henry Price, Sharkey, Dave Van Dusen, and Joe Wright.

The Detroit Pistons have met all but two teams—five-time champion Boston and New York—in the annual National Basketball Association championship playoff series.

been produced—two notable ones, in 1962 and 1963—were Michigan state champions.

FOR THE first time since 1955, Birmingham will host the 1963 Babe Ruth state tournament, to be held at Seaholm and Groves high school fields.

The league is open to boys between the ages of 13 and 15, who live in the Birmingham School District.

"The officers and board of directors of our organization wish to express their sincere gratitude and appreciation to the many sponsors, civic-minded individuals, school officials, recreation board members, recreation directors, managers, coaches and city officials for their splendid cooperation and enthusiasm," said Bates.

Birmingham Cadets Earn Letters in Intramural Sport

Two Birmingham youths have been voted intramural basketball letters at Westworth Military Academy, Lexington, Mo., according to Maj. John C. Readecker, athletic director.

They are: Cadet Peter Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. C. Webster, 5712 Tall Oaks Rd., and Cadet William Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Weeks, 3860 Carriage Road.

Approval of the intramural emblem awards was made by the Westworth athletic council following the recommendations of the coaching staff. More than 150 cadets participated in basketball play on 18 teams in three leagues during the winter months, with each team playing a round robin in its respective league.

The meat of game birds and animals tends to be drier and the taste a bit stronger than meat-market meat. Keep the meat moist by cooking with gravy, by lacing it with strips of bacon, or by using some other approved, moist method of cooking.

Y Girls Place 4th in State Swim Meet

The Birmingham YMCA Midget Girls Swimming Team, for girls 10 years old and under, placed fourth in the state swimming meet Saturday at the West YMCA, Grand Rapids.

This is a considerable achievement for a Y team without a home pool. A new swimming pool is in the plans as part of the new expansion program planned for the Birmingham Y.

The girls were coached by Virgil Westdale of Farmington, who has volunteered his time all year.

THE GIRLS who participated were Peggy Clark, 1737 Bates; Barbara Gaskill, 4094 Far Hill; Nancy Roney, 851 Hickory Heights; all of Birmingham; Martha Scott, 965 W. Harsdale, Bloomfield Hills; Cynthia Koeller, 1186 Villa, Birmingham; Virginia Von Verse, 4889 Ardmore, Bloomfield Hills; Lee Esler, 708 Larches, Birmingham; Liz Henderson, 4341 W. Orchard Hill, Birmingham; and Cheryl Westdale, of Farmington.

The team took a first in the 20-yard freestyle, second in 40-yard freestyle, third in breaststroke and individual medley, fourth in backstroke, fifth in freestyle relay and sixth in the butterfly.

Milt Plum of the Detroit Lions has completed 57.9 percent of his passes in five seasons in the National Football League, for the top performance in league record books.

meeting of this organization will be held as usual in the Activities Room of the Community House.

The program will include an appropriate Easter message by Harry Martin, of the 1st Methodist Church. There will be no meeting on April 12 since it is Good Friday.
