Field Service Chapter Sets U. N. Program

The West Bloomfield Chapter of the American Field Service will present a miniature United Nations panel at a special program at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the gym of West Bloomfield High School, Orchard Lake.

Participating in the round-table discussion will be five AFS exchange students who are spending the school year with families residing in Oakland County. Included is Dann Goso from the Philippines, who has been attending West Bloomfield High School.

Discussion moderator will be Ricki Ann Hoyle, president of the West Bloomfield AFS Student Club.

SOME OF THE exchange students will appear in native garb. Also on the program is a bamboo pole dance, to be performed by Goso assisted by a group of West Bloomfield students.

All residents of the West Bloomfield area are invited to attend, according to Mrs. Frederick Ring, chairman of the evening's program.
