Mrs. Stark Gives Fair Warning

Blond and perky Mrs. Harry Stark, Jr. says, "If you live in Birmingham or environs, circle May 4 on your calendar because THAT'S the day of the telephone bridge and canasta party being sponsored by Friends of Holy Name School Library, and the whole town is about to be involved."

There are to be two sessions, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, and already hostesses have called for rules and regulations, Manning the phones for this operation, and also on the day of the parties, are Mrs. Sidney W. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Frank C. Murphy, Jr., Mrs. John Gibson, Mrs. William Compton and Mrs. Frank McLaughlin.

Spending spring afternoons shopping for prizes are Mrs. Joseph Rhodin, Mrs. John MacAlon and Mrs. William J. Brown.

Other committee members include Mrs. William C. Roney, Jr., Mrs. Donald Byerlein, Mrs. William S. Mullen, Mrs. John Rudy, Mrs. John Ricardo, Mrs. Frank Renell and Mrs. John H. O'Hara, Jr.

MSU Auxiliary Plans Benefit

"A Garden of Fashions" is the theme chosen by the Women's Auxiliary, Michigan State University Club of Oakland County, for its annual spring luncheon and fashion show to be held April 25 at Birmingham Country Club. Mrs. Dorne Dibble and Mrs. Ransom Leach, co-chairmen of the event, have announced that Ferguson Sportswear will sponsor the fashion show and Lorenzo Lorenzetti will demonstrate wiglets. There will be door prizes, including one of the wigs.

PROCEEDS FROM the luncheon are used to maintain the five MSU scholarships currently being given by the Club to Oakland County high school students.

Other local alumni working on the luncheon are Mrs. Garvin Meadowcroft, decoration; Mrs. Reginald Oak, programs; Mrs. Robert Hennessy, door prizes; Mrs. Cliff Messey, hostesses; Mrs. Corena Aldrich, patrons and Mrs. Dean Eby, models.

Ticket information may be obtained from Mrs. James Garrity in Birmingham or Mrs. Hal McDavid in Farmington.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sarkisian who moved here in February from Roseville, Mich., and are living at 7052 White Pine Drive? Mr. Sarkisian is with Chrysler Engineering and there are two Sarkisian youngsters: George, 6, and Danny, 4.

Open Hunt Club Renews 'Ladies' Day

Bloomfield Open Hunt Club has a ladies activity committee about to take off on the first luncheon and fashion show to be held at the club in (quote) "much too long a time."

This recently appointed, dynamic group of women has set May 1 as the date of their party, with cocktails at noon followed by luncheon and a show featuring "round-the-clock fashions by Gamis and hair styles by Gen's. Clothes will range from sportswear, to afternoon, to cocktail dresses, with club members doing the modeling.

MRS. M. R. ANDREE

MRS. F. J. BUSH

The afternoon will be climaxed by bridge for those wishing to stay on.

Among those modeling will be Mrs. Maynard R. Andree, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Fred J. Bush, Mrs. Robert Swanson and Mrs. Wallace Campbell.

Committee members include Mrs. James E. Bullock, Mrs. Budd Eichner, Mrs. John McNaughton, Mrs. Fred J. Bush, Mrs. William Schmackel, Mrs. Robert Swanson, Mrs. Robert Lambert and Mrs. Paul Shine.

Local Women Win Caps

The Oakland County Medical Care Facility on N. Telegraph Road, Pontiac, held capping services Sunday afternoon, with Mrs. William Sproull of Birmingham, chairman of the Gray Lady Unit of Red Cross for Oakland County, presiding.

The Rev. W. Eugene Snodell of St. James Episcopal Church, Birmingham, was guest speaker, and Thomas J. Leonard, manager, thanked the volunteers for their many hours of service and thoughtfulness to the patients.

Among Birmingham women receiving caps and certificates were Mrs. William Spiegle, Mrs. Jeanne Andree, Mrs. Fran Phillips, and Mary Chris Millar.

Refreshments followed the ceremony.

Mishaps

Robinson, B.A.A. president, to introduce Mr. Woods.

FROM THIS point on the evening progressed as planned, marred only by an automobile horn which "stuck" outside the library's open windows, and a slide which "stuck" in Mrs. Shain's projector.

By this time, four newly-elected board members of the Friends, Garvin Hawden, Mrs. George Hillinger, Mrs. Herbert Fisher and John Jickling, were beginning to wonder if they should reconsider before it was too late.

And Jeanne Lloyd, Baldwin librarian, was heard mumbling something about starting her vacation a few days earlier than planned.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Taylor of Battle Creek, formerly of Beverly Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, CAROL, to JAMES E. CHURCHILL of Angola, Ind. The bride-elect is a junior at Michigan State University studying to be a graduate registered nurse and her fiancé is also a junior at MSU, majoring in mechanical engineering. He is affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity. Date for the wedding will be announced later.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. William Chundrik of 2290 Midway? Coming from St. Clair Shores, they have moved into their new home with their two sons, William Jr., 8, who goes to Westchester School and Brian, 4, who is in nursery school. Chundrik is with the Chrysler Corp. Both Mr. and Mrs. Chundrik enjoy playing bridge, Latin dancing and gardening.

Christ Church Rummage A Merchandising Wonder!

If the question, "What will my lady wear this spring?" is uppermost in mind, jot down April 25 at Christ Church Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, where the Episcopal Churchwomen will hold their semi-annual rummage sale.

A tiny veiled designer hat with a pert cluster of roses will be one feature. Another will be a straw hat to provide perfect shade for the hot days ahead. And breathe there a woman who ever bought a new hat without needing a new dress, too? A wide selection will be found!

Other items on sale will range from children's clothing to several stoves to an ironer and, for the literary, books by the dozen.

will be held for the churchwomen April 16. Members of the rummage sale committee are Mrs. J. Davey Gerhardt and Mrs. S. B. Hershey, co-chairmen; Mrs. David Burton, Mrs. C. Robert Weir, Mrs. Edward T. Bennett, Mrs. Russell Robins, Mrs. William F. Graham, Mrs. O. S. Wassels, Mrs. Charles Pellizzari, Mrs. Frank E. Storey, Mrs. Carl Nepper, Mrs. Don Young, Mrs. George Olmsted, Mrs. Calvert Thomas, Mrs. John C. Glimmer, Mrs. Richard Allman, Mrs. Garrett Mow, Mrs. Wendell Mow, Mrs. Richard Daragh, Mrs. David A. Ballentine, Mrs. Fred Sanders, Mrs. J. Thomas Smith and Mrs. John Chapa. Also assisting is Herbert Mann, building superintendent at the church, with his staff.
