BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Local Resident Returns After Vacation in Florida

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Mrs. Joseph B. Kuras returned to her Tootmoor Road home in Gilbert Lake last week after vacationing in Florida. She flew to Tampa with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Nielsen of South Pemberton Road. The Niensens went to Brookville to visit with Mrs. Nielsen's mother and Mrs. Kuras located in "Sun City Center" near Tampa. She also visited with cousins in Port Charlotte before driving back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuras are looking forward to this Easter holiday because they will have with them their two sons and their new daughter-in-law. Bob Kuras arrived home last Friday from his studies at Notre Dame and the new Mr. and Mrs. James Kuras will arrive from Cincinnati today.

WING LAKE

There has been an election of officers at the April 1 meeting of the Wing Lake School PTO. The nominating committee consisted of Mesdames H. A. Preis, Dale Holl, Charles Adams and Mrs. George Sewell.

The new slate will be headed by Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Anderson as president; Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Brown, president-elect; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Susan, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Gray, program chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Andresson, recording secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coughlin, corresponding secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kitzens, membership chairman; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pierce, hospitality chairman.

CHALMERS LAKE

As the Easter bunny makes his rounds through the Chalmers Lake area this coming Sunday morning he will surely leave a tiny basket with a pink bow for a new little miss. She is Keira Marston Souther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Souther of Bywood Road, born March 27 and weighing eight pounds and five ounces. The Southerns have one other child. He is 10-year old Dick. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Margaret Sharon of Ferndale and the paternal grandparents are the Oliver M. Souther of Redford Township.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS

The Bloomfield Heights branch of the Easter Bunny will have to fill one more basket this year as he stops at the Donald Hunt home on Pleasant Trail. A young gentleman named Michael Emmett arrived on March 28 to become the fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt. The other Hunt children hoping their baskets will be filled are Donald, 8, Kevin, 6, and Kimberly, 18 months.

WNFGA held their annual election of officers at their March meeting. The meeting was held at the home of the retiring president, Mrs. George Engelhard on Soden Court. Mrs. Engelhard was presented with a gift as outgoing president.

The new officers for the coming year are president, Mrs. H. J. Hood; vice-president, Mrs. G. Schweitzer; secretary, Mrs. William Howard; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Richard Harris; and treasurer, Mrs. John Doll.

Heading committees will be Mrs. James Hamilton, program chairman; Mrs. Fred Jans, ways and means chairman; Mrs. George Engelhard, conservation chairman; Mrs. Charles Livingston, publicity; and Mrs. William Stelzer, librarian.

Co-hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Charles Livingston and Mrs. William Stelzer.

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. John Kaleszar who have moved into their new home at 3863 Middlebury. They came from Lincoln Park on Feb. 28. Their family consists of John Jr., 12, James, 9, Erna Marie, 7, and Alexander, 5. Kaleszar is with the Liberty Tool and Die Co. Bicycling rates high as a hobby with the entire family but they also enjoy swimming and fishing. They moved into their new home just in time for John Jr. to be confirmed with a class at St. Regis.

To Be Bride

Ruth Denise Alix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nereed D. Alix of West Bloomfield has set June 29 as the date of her marriage to John Warren Porter, son of Mrs. Norris A. Porter of Dearborn and the late Mr. Porter. The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Michigan and her fiancé attended Henry Ford Community College, after which he was assigned to the Aviation Center of the U.S. Army in Fort Rucker, Ala. The wedding will take place in St. Colman's Catholic Church.
