A Woman's Mustache...

You see them everywhere—but who talks about it out loud? Much too embarrassing! Yet few women are blessed with a lily-white, silky-smooth upper lip. What about the others? Who mentions it to them? Not a person. Not their nearest-and-dearest (too hurtful... too delicate). But we're calling a mustache a mustache, in order to tell every woman how to get rid of it. Not with distasteful shaving. Not with bleaching (the color's all gone—still the mustache is there). But swiftly, sweetly.

Helena Rubinstein® has the marvelous answer—Nudit® for the Face and Super Finish® Cream, together in one kit, especially formulated to cream away facial hair. Nudit does it in minutes (and has a delicate fragrance, too); then you follow up with an application of Helena Rubinstein's exclusive Super Finish Cream to smooth your skin to new beauty.

Because Nudit melts hair away, instead of chopping it off at the surface, it leaves your skin soft and smooth as a woman's skin should be.

Just as good for sideburns—or any other bits of embarrassing face-fuzz.

Helena Rubinstein's Nudit for the Face, in a complete kit with exclusive Super Finish Cream and a spatula applicator. Only 1.50 and 2.50, plus tax.

Keep your legs smoothly free of hair with Nudit for the Legs. 1.50 plus tax.

They're Exchanging Official Know-How

Presidency of the League of Women Voters was turned over to Mrs. Garvin Bowden (left) this week, shortly after which she and outgoing president Mrs. George Hillinger got together for an exchange of ideas preceding Wednesday's celebration luncheon at the Village Woman's Club. The informal "hash" session took place at the Bowden home on Gordon Lane, where spring fever took over, luring the ladies outdoors to their personal staff meeting.

Women Voters Celebrate Con-Con Win

Joy prevailed at the Village Women's Club Wednesday when the League of Women Voters of Birmingham combined its annual meeting with a celebration of the successful completion of a four-year campaign for a new constitution.

The old constitution was duly buried and laid to rest in a ceremony which included the placement of flowers by each member who had given a speech for the call of a constitutional convention or in this year's campaign for the ratification of New-Con.

IN A HUMOROUS but touching poem, outgoing president Mrs. George Hillinger outlined an example of outstanding individual effort while unrolling a huge photograph of Con-Con campaign chairman, Mrs. Brooks Marshall.

In a business-as-usual annual meeting, members voted to adopt two new items for the 1963-64 local agenda: A study of Bloomfield Hills and the Bloomfield Hills school district and a study of Oakland County Government. The study of area-wide library service, begun last year, was added to the agenda of local continuing responsibilities, which now includes studies of tax-supported recreational services on the Birmingham school district level, governmental services in education for children, a Birmingham Civil Defense organization and public school libraries.

OFFICERS INSTALLED for two-year terms were Mrs. Garvin Bowden, president; Mrs. D. L. Zorn, first vice president, and Mrs. James Gamble, secretary. Second vice president, Mrs. John Bryant, and Mrs. Lawrence King, treasurer, will complete the second year of their two-year terms. Members of the board of directors are Mrs. James T. Beresford, Mrs. Robert Gray, Mrs.

Nationality costumes will add just the right soupçon of color and flavor to svelte evening fashions of other patrons and hostesses lending their talents towards success of the International Ball slated for Saturday, April 27, at the Statler-Hilton Hotel. Under auspices of the International Institute, the Ball has been coordinated to play an important role in the Detroit Adventure Spring Festival of the Arts and will add a scintillating facet to the many other activities planned by other groups during the Festival.

EVER SINCE THE initial meeting of the steering committee for the Ball, which included Mrs. William McGaughey of Bloomfield Hills, the J. A. McBrides, Margaret Lower, Mr. and Mrs. Rene DeSeranno, the K. Stanley Pratts, Mrs. L. P. Michaels, Sigurd Rudstie and Dale L. Brubaker, also of Bloomfield Hills, details have been nicely smoothing themselves out.

Mr. Brubaker has accepted the post of chairman of the affair and promises an evening filled to the brim with gaiety from 9 p.m. until 1:30 in the morning.

Honorary co-chairman for the event are Gov. and Mrs. George Romney and Detroit's Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh and Mrs. Cavanagh. Special guests at the Ball will be members of the Consular Corps.

Co-chairmen of patrons from various areas include Mrs. Joseph A. Vance, Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Harold L. Frank, Northwest Detroit; Mrs. Semon Knudsen, Birmingham; Mrs. Edward L. Cushman, Dearborn.

MRS. MCGAUGHEY, as chairman of the program for the evening, has invited several ethnic dance groups to show dances all attending can do. During most of the evening, the ball will be geared to both folk and social dancing to encourage participation by all attending. Folk dance leader Ben Chang is assisting her.

Tickets may be obtained from any of the committee members or may be had by calling the International Institute.
