"CONVERSATION REALLY hummed at a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Wilson on Valley Springs Drive on April 4. The guests of honor were two sisters from distant parts of the country. Mrs. Douglas Cameron of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. MacDane of Pompano Beach, Fla., who was accompanied here by her husband. The women are the daughters of Mrs. Searle Mowat of Southfield who was also a guest of the evening. A third daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Burkert of Pleasant Ridge, completed the party. The climax of a perfect evening was dinner at the Forest Lake Country Club.

AFTER ENJOYING a leave from the Navy upon being graduated from training and being the guest of honor at several parties given by his friends, Edward J. Kolack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kolack of Halyard Rd., has returned to the Naval base in San Diego, Calif., for further training. BLOOMFIELD FARMS
Mr. and Mrs. George Wirth of S. Clumbury returned to their home on March 29 after a 15-day cruise to the Caribbean. The first leg of their trip was motoring on the east coast and enjoying a stop-over in Philadelphia where they visited with Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Ward who were former neighbors in Bloomfield Farms. They sailed from New York on the Santa Paula and made port stops in Haiti, Jamaica and Port au Prince. With their car waiting for them on the coast, they were able to bring back quite a supply of souvenirs. On their return motor trip in the states, they stopped to view Niagara Falls. While they were away the senior Mrs. Wirth held down the home fort with the aid of the Wirth children.

CRANBROOK-MALE
A 10-day motor trip to New York was enjoyed thoroughly by Dr. and Mrs. William Richards of S. Gengarry recently. While in the east, Dr. Richards attended several medical meetings. Mrs. Richards took advantage of this time to visit the various points of interest in New York. Their evenings were spent enjoying the plays now appearing on Broadway.

MRS. L. B. FLOWERS of 508 S. Cranbrook Cross will entertain the Book Study Club in her home on Tuesday. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. with a discussion of two books. Leaders of discussion will be Lucille Lightstone and Mary Ann Simon. Individual review will be by Lucille Halbeck.

WESTCHESTER
Starting with cocktails in their home Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Matousek of Middlebury Lane took their guests to dinner and then on to see the Village Players latest production, "Design for Murder" in which Matousek has a leading part. Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Block, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beaumont and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ryder. Mrs. Steven Adams, daughter of the Matouseks, arrived on the week and from Lakewood, Ohio, to spend a few Easter visit with her parents. Her husband will be joining her here later in the week.

Leaving in February, Mrs. Charles Stein of Lahner Rd. motored down to Florida, touring the west coast of the state before going to Lauderdale-by-the-Sea. Stein joined her shortly after for an extended stay at the Villa Serena.

While in Florida, they enjoyed the usual amount of swimming, fishing, golfing and shopping. On the return journey home, Washington and its cherry blossom time was the point of interest.

They arrived back home on Friday. Mrs. Stein's mother, Mrs. Raymond Larson of Kingley, stayed with the Stein's daughters while the parents were vacationing.

MELVIN MERMELL, president of the Westchester PTA announced that the board has voted unanimously to give the profits from the recent pancake supper to Donald Burba, the principal of the school, for the immediate purchase of books for the school library.

URSULA is now in first grade. Ursula is a cockatoo. She was originally the pet of Laurie Burba but before too long Laurie's mother suggested that they find another home for Ursula. Don Burba, principal of the new Westchester school approached Mrs. Anthony Calomeni, who teaches the first grade at the school, and asked if he might like to try having the bird in her classroom. It has proved a huge success.

Ursula's cage door is usually open and she flies around the room. One day recently Ursula caused quite a stir when she laid her first egg. Mrs. Calomeni plans to care for Ursula during the summer vacation.

Returning home for Easter are the Howards Beers of Burnley Drive. They flew to Italy where they began a two-week eastern Mediterranean cruise with stops at many ports during their fabulous journey.

Among the many highlights of their trip were the two days spent in Egypt touring the Egyptian museums, motoring to Cairo and then mounting camels for the trip to the pyramids. Another two days were spent in Rhodes, Greece. Viewing the palaces along the Grand Canal at dawn as they cruised into Venice was another memorable sight. The Beers traveled on to Jordan where they visited Jerusalem and Bethlehem and then on to Israel, Nazareth and a boat trip on the Sea of Galilee.

THE DAVE EILERS of Robinson Circle flew their own Comanche plane to the Bahamas picking up friends, the Tony Maszuro's of Toledo, O., along the way.

During their island hopping, they visited the Grand Bahamas, Eleuthera, Georgetown, Exuma, Nassau and then went to Bimini for deep sea fishing. On several occasions they flew over the 1,000 tiny surrounding islands pinpointed in the sea.

Their last week was spent basking in the sun at Pompano Beach before returning home.

THE GEORGE MALLYS of Upton Road are home from an enjoyable Caribbean cruise on the SS Hansatic. Among their ports of call were St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands, San Juan, Puerto Rico, Nassau in the Bahamas.

On their homeward voyage they cruised close enough to see the coast of Cuba before hitting a reef which delayed docking time a day.
