Trip to Jamaica Follows Ceremony

Following their marriage April 6 in Kirk-in-the-Hills Church, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Charles Ten Eyck are honeymooning in Montego Bay, Jamaica. The pair repeated their vows at a 4 o'clock ceremony before the Rev. Harold C. DeWindt, parents are the Andrew Ten Eycks of Chesterfield Road, Birmingham.

Sentiment and tradition played a part in the service, as the bride's only piece of jewelry was a cameo pin given to her by her grandmother and her wedding gown had been her mother's. Fashioned of ivory satin, it was accented by Alencon lace, its basque waist band in satin ruching. A flared skirt extended into the chapel train.

Her French illusion fingertip veil fell from an Alencon lace cap, and she carried gardenias, stephanotis and ivy.

Nancy Rosborough of Moline, Ill., was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Kimberly Hathaway of Cincinnati, O., and Aurora Nardozzi of Pleasantville, N. Y. Martha and Laura McNaughton, sisters of the bride, served as junior bridesmaids. They all wore jade green chiffon applied in Alencon lace. Dior bows with short bouffant veils. They carried crescent bouquets of pink carnations and roses, purple heather and ivy.

Harry T. Clinton III of Fairlawn, N. J., was best man, and seating the guests were Andrew Ten Eyck of Dearborn, William Ten Eyck of Birmingham, brothers of the bridegroom, and William T. McNaughton, Jr., brother of the bride.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Robins Are Singing

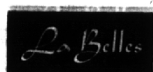

It's Spring Again!

It's time for refurbishing after the faded winter!

More and more, however, when Spring arrives and the robins sing, thoughtful home lovers freshen their rooms with little changes: big-little and important changes—a lamp or two, a new picture on the wall; perchance some new occasional furniture, new place mats. Whatever you add—if carefully selected—adds to the enjoyment of home after glorious days out of doors!

DOA Will Sponsor Hawaiian Party

A Hawaiian party and benefit dance will be sponsored by the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital Auxiliary on April 30 at the American Legion Hall, 16980 Greenfield.

Mrs. Donald Ross of Birmingham is chairman of the benefit, proceeds from which will be donated to the National Osteopathic Scholarship Foundation.

Guests will be greeted with the traditional island welcome — flower leis and hula girls. Mrs. Henry V. Larabee of Royal Oak, president of the Auxiliary, will also be on hand to welcome guests.

A cocktail party at 6:30 with a flowing champagne fountain and festive Hawaiian music will put party-goers in a "hula" mood. Strolling musicians will then lead the party into the Hawaiian Room where a polynesian dinner will be served while hula dancers entertain.

OTHER EXCITING entertainment will be furnished by staff physicians Dr. O. L. Brooker and his combo; Dr. Edward Small on the vibraphone; Dr. Brooker on the ukulele; James Lynch on the Hawaiian guitar; and Dr. George Benton on bass. The "Swinging Hawaiians" will include Dr. Ralph Lindberg, Dr. William Herbold, Floyd Brooker and Dr. William Ho.

Dr. Ho and Mrs. Roland Engsign will entertain with vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs. Scott Sample at the piano.

Also, the "Hawaiian Hipsters" will be presented by the interns and residents, and their wives, under the direction of Mrs. Christopher Masure of Highland Park. This promises to be the hottest dance from the island.

Rounding out the evening's fun will be dancing with Bob Grayson and his Island Boys.

Hostesses for the gala evening will include Mrs. George Krates, Mrs. Louis J. Manley, Mrs. William Bender, Mrs. Milton Kosley and Mrs. Daniel Koprinke.

Sorosis Meets

The Birmingham alumnae group of Collegiate Sorosis met for dinner Tuesday at the Village Women's Club. Plans were completed for the group's final project of the spring, selling tickets for the Birmingham Village Players' production of "Thurber Carnival" on May 3.
