Festivity Keynotes Holiday at DAC

Detroit Athletic Club's Easter weekend was festive and gay. The holiday "do's" followed one another with kaleidoscopic variety, starring the Fathers and Daughters party and holiday floor show opener on Saturday, and the big buffet dinner Sunday.

Families were in continuous parade Easter Sunday from noon to 8 p.m. The clubhouse was beautiful with flowers—stately Easter lilies and blooming azaleas trees; carved ice Easter crosses and huge rabbits decked buffet tables. Preliminary reservations had snowballed until they were totaling 1,000; then reservations were closed and the main floor Grill Room added to second floor dining rooms for the day.

A display of barnyard pets in special pens (live bunnies, chicks, ducklings and a white-as-snow Mary's lamb) fascinated the youngsters.

THE TIMOTHY A. Reimans came for 4 o'clock dinner, bringing their little daughters, Catherine and Leslie. The Frank R. Spitznagels Jr. and their three, Pamela, Rob and Doug, dined early at 1 p.m.

With Mr. and Mrs. Laurence T. Herman and their children, Deborah, Florence and Kate, were Mrs. Herman's brother-in-law and sister, the Sherwin Thieles of Lake Forest, Ill., with their Barbara and Bill, and a brother and sister-in-law, the Thomas Dingles of Evanston, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Krueger's group included son-in-law and daughter, the Richard LaDues, with Ricky, Jimmy and Cheryl; the Carl M. Kruegers, Jr., with their Mr. and Mrs. Kathy, and the junior Mrs. Krueger's mother, Mrs. Roy Pero. The Jay W. Dunivans, Jr. of Ravenscroft, Farmington, and their daughters, Rory, Daria, Tania, Erin and Holly were with the senior Jay W. Dunivans and their daughter and son-in-law, the C. C. Masons of Coleman, Mich.

THE DAC's floor show opener Saturday night, Easter eve, was jolly. Dressy cocktail frocks and short evening dresses were the feminine choice along with the men's black tie attire.

On the bandstand were Michael Petry and his orchestra; entertainers were the popular supper club singer, Bonnie Murray, and the juggler of jet-speed rapidity, Francis Brunn.

A few from the Birmingham area who attended opening night (DAC's Easter show continues through this Saturday, the twentieth) were the Earl Lowes and their guests, Mrs. Gardner Pardee, Dr. Martin Strand and the E. F. Berrys, and the William S. Spiegels, who entertained the Lawrence Andersons, the Gordon Walkers and the Warren D. Cougors of Grosse Pointe.
