MR. AND Mrs. Dale E. Burrows and children, Steven and Cheryl, visited their Birmingham parents over the Easter weekend. They were entertained at a dinner party on Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. H. Burrows, and on Sunday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Carl S. Ohm at the Detroit Athletic Club. The couple, who have resided in Canton, O., since Dale's graduation from the University of Michigan School of Engineering in June, 1962 used the occasion of their Birmingham visit to reunite with friends who graduated with them from Birmingham High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. H. Burrows, North Adams Road, Birmingham, entertained their nephew, Lt. Wesley P. Hackett Jr., who is stationed at Selfridge Air Force Base at Easter Sunday brunch. The Burrows' family group for Easter dinner at the Detroit Golf Club included Mrs. Willie M. Decker, mother of Mrs. Burrows; Lt. Hackett and Cinde Cahn, a niece.

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Norway, Denmark Visited by Couple From Local Area

GLORIA JESSUP

Mr. and Mrs. Benth H. Larsen of Rock Creek Drive, Cranbrook left last December for Norway and Denmark. They visited Mrs. Larsen's mother in Norway and then went to Denmark to see Larsen's mother and father, sisters and brothers. They enjoyed an old fashioned Danish Christmas and Mrs. Larsen's mother made her first plane trip to Denmark to join the whole Larsen family.

Following New Year's, Larsen returned home but Mrs. Larsen remained until last Wednesday. She wanted to try some skiing and even won a "keep on trying" medal as a tribute to her determination.

A NEW MEMBER of Cranbrook celebrating his first Easter was little Scott William Harvie who was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harvie on Jan. 26. Helping her brother celebrate was Susanne who will be four in July. The new four-some lives in Westbrook Parkway. Another proud Harvie who was delighted with her grandson is Mrs. Gladys Harvie of Lathrup.

Over at the Westbrook Parkway home of the Walter Zetys six couples enjoyed a dance party on a recent Saturday evening. The Zetys were hosts for the April meeting at which time the couples gathered for instruction in Latin American dances and stayed to partake of a midnight buffet. Members of the group include the George Cummings, the Stanley Sobolewskis, the Jon Letkas, the Donald Hunts and the Gene Leszczys.

LATHRUP

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Berger of Sunnyside Road were hosts for Easter dinner this year. Among their guests were Mrs. Berger's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Grace of Cranbrook Village, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grace Jr. who just recently returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson of Bungalow hosted a family dinner on Easter Sunday. Those present were the Andersons' 7-year old son, David; Mrs. Anderson's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rysam of Detroit; Anderson's mother, Mrs. Jesse Anderson of Presbyterian Village; and Mr. and Mrs. David Miller with sons, Chuck and John of Grosse Pointe Park.

CRANBROOK

Last week Mrs. Joseph Grace of Rainbow Circle entertained a few friends for luncheon at the Detroit Golf Club. Today Dr. and Mrs. Grace are looking forward to the return of their son, Pvt. Thomas Grace, who has completed his military service.

SOUTHFIELD

The Optimist Club of Southfield have invited their wives to attend their meeting tonight. Members, wives and guests will meet for a 6:45 dinner meeting at the North Congregational Church on North Lahser Road. Members of the new Farmington Optimist Club have been invited to attend.

As part of the business meeting, three new members will be inducted into the club. They are Ward McDonald, A. B. Morse and Michael Roth.

Guest speaker will be Royal S. Buchanan who is assistant director of appliance engineering and research of the Kelvinator division of American Motors. His speech is entitled, "Hot Facts On A Cold Subject."

AT THE APRIL 4 meeting of the Optimist Club the winners of the oratorical contest were announced. The boys must not be over 16 years old and must write their own speech. The title of this year's contest was "Youth's Approach Toward World Forces." Winners were first, Barton Smith of Lederle; second, Chris Larsen of Birney; Mike Lusko of Lederle; Bill Crick of St. Bede's; and Terry Crawford and Kim Watts, both of Lederle.

Engaged

The engagement of Lana Kay Bosman to Otto M. Dixon, Jr. has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vasko of Beechwood Road, Beverly Hills. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Dixon of Highland Park. Both young people attended Wayne State University, where his fraternity was Alpha Sigma Phi. They plan a late summer wedding.

OES Members Honor Officers

Birmingham Chapter 220, Order of the Eastern Star, honored Oakland County Association officers on Wednesday in the Birmingham Masonic Temple. The event was titled "Friendship Night." Guest officers of other chapters exemplified the degree.

Birmingham officers who have been invited to be guests of other chapters on their "Friendship Nights" during April are Mrs. Clifford Ross, Mrs. Ray Render, Mrs. Edward Stute, Mrs. Allen LaSage, Mrs. Jack Lewis, Mrs. Jack Copeland, Florence, Birmingham and Mrs. Lyla Theobald.

Luncheon Meeting

Lt. Robert Schaule of the Birmingham Police Department spoke Monday on traffic safety when the Birmingham Rotary Anna met for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles Miller, Huntington Woods.

Those on the luncheon committee were Mrs. Clarence Kraft, Mrs. Ralph Corryell, Mrs. G. T. Overgard and Mrs. Robert Peck.
