Women's Club Schedules Luncheon

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

A luncheon of gourmet delights is being offered by the Westchester Women's Club as they hold their buffet cook-off on April 25 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Shannon, 2766 Heathfield, at 12:30. Dishes will be comprised of salads, main dishes and desserts. Votes will be taken for the tastiest, temptingest and most tantalizing dishes and a stack of silver dollars given to the creator of the one receiving the most votes. Reservations for the luncheon must be in before Sunday and will be taken by Mrs. John Wait, 2694 Heathfield, and Mrs. Joseph McNeerney, 724 Westbourne.

IT WAS HAPPY EASTER time at the Wait home on Heathfield when Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Shoemaker motored from Chevy Chase, Md., to visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Wait, and their two grandchildren, Susan and Cathy. They arrived April 11 for about a week's stay.

Paul Callaghan, science teacher of the seventh grade boys of St. Regis School, was quite proud of his boys when four of them qualified with their projects to be exhibitors at the science fair that was held at Cobo Hall recently.

Roger Schreiber's exhibition was in the field of radio; Mark Lennox dealt with resistor coils; Brian O'Neill's was in the field of electricity; and Philip Nelsen displayed the component parts of jet motors. The latter three were awarded red ribbons (honorable mention) for their projects.

BERKSHIRE
A very busy person these days is Kay Harrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harrington of Old Mill Rd. Kay is campus publicity chairman at the University of Detroit and with the school's annual spring carnival approaching much is to be done. This year the event will be held on the college campus on May 4 and 5.

Dennis Adams of Wadsworth Lane is in charge of the Friday night entertainment. Kay was also a recent candidate for the student council.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS
Flying to Germany for three weeks, with her husband who had been there on a four-month business trip, was a thrilling experience for Mrs. M. P. Forham of N. Clubway. Returning home the end of March, Mrs. Forham told of her stay at the Carleton Hotel in Cologne which is directly across the street from a church dating back to the 10th century. While there she had ample time to visit the shops.

Weekends were spent traveling the countryside with her husband and a trip to Holland visiting Hague and Amsterdam. Forham was expected home in time to spend Easter with his wife and children, Paul, Tim and Kathy.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE
Mrs. Thomas Perkins of Bassett Place, who is chairman of the ladies golf committee of Stoneycroft Country Club has announced there will be a "kick-off" luncheon and fashion show for members and their friends. It will take place on Tuesday, at the Birmingham Country Club and will begin promptly at noon. Members of Stoneycroft will model. Bill Kennedy from the pro shop of Stoneycroft will be present to give some tips on golfing. Mrs. Vernon Butler and Mrs. Arch Simpson are co-chairmen of the luncheon.

RETURNING ON FRIDAY
after a two-week vacation in Florida were Mrs. Robert Pearson of S. Cranbrook Road and Mrs. A. J. Jehle of Avon Lane. The women drove home, taking advantage of the scenery, and flew back. They stopped in St. Petersburg to visit with Mrs. Jehle's mother, Mrs. Rieble, and Mrs. Pearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Lowe, and then drove on to Ft. Lauderdale where they stayed at the Sea Gals Apartments. Most of their time was spent swimming and boating.

GUEST SPEAKER at the monthly meeting of the Maplebrook branch WNFGA will be Mrs. Paul G. Eger of St. Joseph. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Loring, 296 S. Cranbrook Cross, on Wednesday and begins at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Eger was formerly a member of the Lansing branch of the

Resident Returns Home After Week in New York

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Mrs. Elwood Engel will return to her Franklin Road, Chalmers Lake home today after spending a week in New York. Mrs. Engel flew to New York last Thursday and was met shortly by her sister and her houseguest who drove east with the Engel's son, Charles, for the Easter holiday. This was a final glimpse of the U. S. for Mrs. Engel's houseguest, who had been with the Engel family since September. She will be returning to Sweden following the holiday in New York.

Mrs. Engel and company attended the automobile show, some plays and the opera during their vacation. Engel was scheduled to accompany Mrs. Engel but at the last minute business commitments kept him from taking a short holiday.

DR. AND MRS. CECIL CONRAD of North Glenhurst Road and their daughter Judy, a freshman at Kingswood, drove to Howe Military Academy to spend Easter with their son Chris.

Mrs. Conrad of North Glenhurst Road had the monthly meeting yesterday of the children's theatre group of the American Association of University Women. Conducting the meeting were Mrs. Margaret Remondino, Mrs. Elsie Bliss and Mrs. Dusty Loud.

Kathy Orlich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Orlich of Lakewood Road, celebrated her 15th birthday by inviting nine of her Bloomfield Hills Junior High School girl friends for a pajama party recently.

Rich Orlich arrived home to spend the Easter holidays with his family. He is in his freshman year at Ferris Institute.

SODON LAKE
It was a quiet Easter at the Clifford Kellstrom home on Derry Road because their oldest son was away in Florida with the high school crowd and Mr. and Mrs. Kellstrom were deep in plans for the move into their new home on Broughton Road in the Wing Lake area.

The Kellstroms will bid their old neighbors adieu within the next two weeks but they won't be going very far away—just down Franklin Road from Sodon Lake to the Wing Lake area.

Garden Group Fetes Husbands

April 8 was husband's night for the Oakland branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. The group met in Royal Oak. The program was entitled "Getting Acquainted." Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Gloria Scheurer who was an international farm youth exchange delegate to France.

Mrs. Fred Hornfisher, 2746 Towhille Drive, Birmingham, was co-hostess in charge of refreshments.

Illinois Rites

Susan Jensine Wetzel of Wilmette, Ill. became the bride at an afternoon ceremony March 30 of Onas James Little, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Little of Franklin Road, Bloomfield Hills. The wedding was held in the Wilmette Parish Methodist Church with a reception following at the Orrington Hotel, Evanston, Ill.

Officers Named By Sorority

Among the officers elected at the April 4 meeting of the Bookley Alpha Eta chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa was Mrs. Richard Backus, Birmingham, vice president; Mrs. Merrill Schlaack, Birmingham, sergeant-at-arms; and Mrs. William R. Lee, Bloomfield Hills, historian.

A program of slides was presented at the meeting.

The May 2 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Backus.
