Members of the Mothers Club at Marian High are combining furniture and fashions in the four-act style show they're sponsoring May 4 at the school. Clothes will be worn against contemporary, early American, traditional and French provincial backgrounds, with 33 of the mothers doing the modeling. An abundance of spring flowers will decorate the cafeteria where tea will be served.

Sorority Sisters Hold Meeting

The Detroit alumnae chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon held its April meeting on Monday at the home of Mrs. Fred Shafer of Detroit. Among the Birmingham members attending were Mrs. Saul Bernat, Mrs. A. W. Brown, Mrs. W. B. Dege, Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. Walter Ruffer. The chairman of the refreshment committee was Mrs. J. D. Symons of Southfield.

Post-Easter Dinner Fete Planned by Area Couples

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

A post-Easter dinner dance will highlight this weekend for members and friends of the Couples Club. To be held Friday night at the Edgewood Country Club, the affair will start at 7:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sawyer and the Ludwig Tischlers have been making the arrangements.

Another popular event to plan on for the family is the annual pancake supper April 26, offered by the Boy Scouts of Troop 1011 at the Franklin Community Church. Scouts are selling advance tickets on a competitive basis so let your favorite scout know how many.

MR. AND MRS. STEPHEN Gidley of Seaside hosted old and new scenic road families recently to bridge the transitional period of a neighborhood that had remained quite stable for nearly 15 years. The informal affair put everyone on a first-name basis for over-the-fencing this summer.

It's a first for the Stanford Evans of Vincennes, who announce the arrival of Marjorie Jane, born March 20.

THE FRANKLIN Cemetery Association and Auxiliary held their annual joint meeting and pot-luck supper April 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Curtis on Captains Lane.

Arthur Kruger was elected president for the coming year with Franklin Parker as vice-president. Arnold Bingham was named secretary-treasurer.

Directors for the organization which oversees the operation and maintenance of the historic little hill-top cemetery will be Kenneth Bristol, Clayton Curtis, Charles Harris, Donald Brownlee, Florence Bingham, Dale Spicer and Mrs. Jennie Masters.

Faced with rising costs of upkeep, the association appointed a ways and means committee, headed by Kruger, to develop a new source of funds. The one-year clean-up scheduled for the first warm Saturday in May is open to volunteers.

SEVERAL LARGE families have split up this spring vacation week to afford a holiday for the older youngsters.

The R. J. Hampsons headed for Virginia, Gettysburg and possibly the New England States to show sons Bob and Tom some historic sites and college campuses.

Three Rosiello children accompanied father Nick to New York, N. Y. for a visit with grandparents there while the remainder stayed at home.

The George Huffman house on Seaside has a solid sign heralding the fact that Franklin may lose another of its favorite families. It may be that smaller quarters close by may soften the blow.
