FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Pancake Supper Planned By Village Scout Troop

NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

Troop 1011 Boy Scouts will hold their annual pancake supper Friday. Consumption begins at 6:30 p.m. in the Franklin Community Church social hall. Teams of lads and dads are organized to give efficient service. Troop projects will be exhibited and ways and means for the explorer post's second annual canoe trip will be demonstrated.

Carl Pendrack, assistant director of physical education for the Birmingham School District, will be guest speaker Monday for the Franklin School PTA meeting.

Pendrack will show the color film, "Physical Fitness," stressing President Kennedy's current program.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in the school multi-purpose room and members will vote for next year's slate of officers.

Nominated for the 1963-64 season are Fred Hirschman, president; Jack Bickhardt, vice-president; Jean (Mrs. Calvin) Brown, secretary; and Allen Donald, treasurer.

HAWAII, REVISITED by the Dick Probsts was all they remembered and more. Home Sunday after three weeks, which included a stay at Waikiki Beach and seeing friends in San Francisco and Los Angeles, the four sons have returned to their Normandy Road address.

Residents of Hawaii for several years during the war, the Probsts had lots of things to show daughter Patty and son Dick. But best of all was the royal welcome they received from old friends there. While Mr. and Mrs. Jack

MRS. B. M. KELLEHER

Miss Barcella Speaks Vows In Maryland

Andre' Louise Barcella became the bride of Bruce Malcolm Kelleher in Silver Spring, Md., on April 20.

Mrs. Kelleher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Barcella of 681 Overhill Road, Bloomfield Village. Mr. Kelleher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Kelleher of Silver Spring.

The Rev. Francis Kelleher, O.S.B., uncle of the groom, performed the double-ring ceremony at a nuptial mass at St. Bernard's Church in Silver Spring. The Rev. Harold F. Trehey assisted.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a Bianchi gown of ivory silk peau de soie with seed pearls and crystals forming a delicate floral design on the bodice and three-quarter length sleeves; a bell-shaped skirt with a chapel train coming from a Watteau back, and a matching pill box hat with a long illusion veil. She carried a mother of pearl prayer book with white phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

MARGUERITE McGETTIGAN of Silver Spring was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Eleanor Barcella of Hamden, Conn., and Sheila Berniere of Boston, cousins of the bride; Beverly Nichols of Silver Spring and Carol Rush of Baltimore. They wore long sheath dresses, each of a different hue of lavender, with over-jackets buttoned down the back and matching pill box hats. They carried violet nosegays.

Flower girls were Lisa Berniere and Cynthia Davis of North Haven, Conn., cousins of the bride. They wore short white dresses with deep purple sashes and pill box hats and carried miniature violet nosegays.

Best man was William D. Kelleher, Jr. of Wayne, N.J., brother of the groom.

Ernest L. Barcella, Jr. of Bloomfield Village, brother of the bride; Richard Christopher of Wilmington, Del.; Paul Jelus of Camden, N.J.; and James Kelleher, Jr. of Wilmington, a cousin of the groom, served as ushers.

Mrs. Barcella wore a petal pink silk peau de soie dress with Belgian lace applique on the hem and neckline, a silk organza hat in petal pink and short pink leather gloves.

THE GROOM'S mother wore a silver blue dress of embroidered Alencon lace on the bodice, with a draped silk peau de soie skirt. After a reception at the Kenwood country club in Bethesda, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Kelleher left on a wedding trip to Florida and Nassau.

The Kellehers will make their home in Hagerstown, Md. They were graduated last June from the University of Maryland, where Mr. Kelleher was captain of the varsity basketball team for two years.

Included among the new members honored will be the Charles DeLozans, the Hunter McDowds, the Wynne Waltons, the Howard Foels, the Michael Finns, the Harold Mannings, the James Scotts, the David Denrests and the George Piersons.
