Couple Attend Bridge Tournament

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-0056

Attending the Canadian regional bridge tournament in Toronto, Canada, April 10-14 were Dr. and Mrs. William Barron of S. Cranbrook Cross with their partners Mr. and Mrs. Shan Brom of Grasse Pointe, Mrs. Barron and Mrs. Brom, who have been playing together for 10 years, won the qualifying round with the highest score ever posted in the tournament.

Dr. Barron has been a life master in bridge for quite some time. Mrs. Barron hopes to acquire the same rating when she plays in the regional tournament that will take place in Lansing on May 2.

THE THEME was "strictly beatnik" when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Prahler of S. Glengary issued invitations to a "coffee house party." It was held on Saturday at their home. Guests came attired in beatnik costume and performed as the mood struck them.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shirock, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. James Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Eno Pisaneschi of Fair Haven and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Guite of Royal Oak.

WESTCHESTER
The Westchester branch WNGFA held its meeting on Monday at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Slater, 3172 Pebble Lane. Slides were shown on outdoor Christmas lighting, pictures of the Miracle Mile flower show of last September and the 1962 flower show.

The topic of the evening was "Our Progress on Film." Mrs. Robert Williamson, photography chairman, was in charge of this portion of the program. Mrs. Edward Collins, guest speaker of the evening, showed slides and spoke on "Flowers in the Canadian Rockies and the Butchart Gardens."

WHEN THE Westchester School has their book fair, Tuesday through Friday they will have a large number of records in addition to the 300 books on display. Any book in print may be purchased through the fair and all proceeds will be used to purchase new books for the school library. On Tuesday and Wednesday, the fair will be open during school hours. On May 1 and 2, the hours will be from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. and again from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The St. Joan of Arc Guild of St. Regis Church held their meeting on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Philip Leonard of Bradford Drive. Fr. Shields gave an outline for future plans of the St. Regis Altar Society and the guilds.

KNOLLWOOD FAIRWAYS

Mrs. Harold Luvisch of Knollwood Circle, accompanied by their two daughters, Michele and Cindy, spent a long Easter weekend in New York City and did quite a bit of educational sight seeing. While there they stayed at the Park Sheraton. Being the small world that it is, Michele met a school chum from this area while strolling down Fifth Avenue.
