Women Enjoy Art Work Showing Use of Flowers

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER
MI 6-9716

The Valley Woods branch of the National Farm and Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Nylund of Eastlady April 8. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Russell Seeburger, Mrs. Fred Polidan and Mrs. Frederick Westbury.

The guest of honor was Mrs. Dottie Modrack who is connected with Jacobson's art gallery. She brought with her many pictures showing different ways in which flowers have been used in paintings.

At their March meeting, the members designed and made flowered hats under the direction of Florence Byrne, hat designer. She also made two hats which were won by Mrs. Harry Klumpp and Mrs. Hans Fredrickson. They wore them on Easter Sunday. This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. James Severy of Westlady. She was assisted by Mrs. Frank Neward and Mrs. Walter Nylund.

The club members are now completing plans for their flower show to be held May 28 at the Bloomfield Art Association. Final arrangements will be completed on May 9 when a sandwich luncheon will be held at the home of Mrs. Russell Seeburger on Bellvue Trail. They have won two previous awards for their flower shows.

MR. AND MRS. Donald Rader of Leemore Drive have recently returned from a three-weeks vacation. They motored to Miami, spent some time at Pompano Beach and Key West and then took a cruise to Nassau. They enjoyed deep sea fishing, golf, shopping and sight-seeing.

The West Beverly Hills Association will hold their annual dinner dance on May 18 at Devon Gables. The dinner will begin at 8 p.m. preceded by a cocktail hour at 7 p.m. George Bettlinger is chairman of the party. The Beverly Hills branch WNGFA will meet on May 2 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Braden 16280 Locherbie. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Robert Watson, Mrs. David Raup and Mrs. G. R. Heinzelman. A program is being planned by the flower arranging group.

OVER 30 OF Our Lady Queen of Leornore Drive returned this week from a three-week vacation in the west. They flew to Los Angeles where they spent a week visiting friends and relatives, and seeing the sights. The next week they spent in Los Vegas and then Mrs. Young went to Montana to spend a week with her family.

MR. AND MRS. Howard Lamble are spending the weekend visiting their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prucha in Alpena. They will also be celebrating their silver wedding anniversary.

The West Beverly branch WNGFA will meet today at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft of Devonshire. The project for the afternoon will be making Mother's Day gifts for women patients at the Pontiac State Hospital.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Robert Engel and Mrs. Charles Lyle.

NORTH ADAMS

Residents Travel Country In Easter Holiday Season

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

There were many travelers throughout the North Adams area during the Easter holiday week. The A. L. Baumanns and sons, Greg Jeff and Al, of Rouge Circle Drive departed by air for Puerto Rico where they spent Easter Sunday. They had nine days to tour San Juan and Ponce during their vacation.

Phonik, Ariz., was the Easter destination of the Stewart Rosses and children, Douglas and Scott, of Robinson Circle. They toured parts of Arizona and visited grandparents Col. and Mrs. L. H. Ross in Phoenix.

The Charles Kramers of Townhill Drive and their children, Caroline, Chuck and Stephanie, have been on a 10-day Easter trip. New Orleans was their first stop for three days of sight-seeing. Flying in from Houston, Tex., to meet them were friends Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hesley. Then on to Miami and a boat to Nassau before returning to Florida and home this week.

THE JAMES GLASCOWS and daughters Bonnie and Lesley of Eastways Drive traveled to Washington, D. C. Easter week. During their stay they went sight-seeing. Williamsburg was also visited before returning home.

The David Chutes of Robinson and their children, Nancy, Thomas Gummings of Rochester, toured the New England states during the holiday week. They visited friends in Boston, Mass. and stopped in Lake Shore Park in New Hampshire to visit former neighbors and friends. The Andrew Parks and their children, Leslie, Dave and Tammy, of Sussex Road journeyed to Florida for two weeks at Easter. Palm Beach was their home as they toured the countryside and seashores. In Pompano Beach, they were guests of friends, the Lester Stewarts.

LESBURG WAS the first stop on the Florida trip for the Wally Morgans and children, Kathy and Susan, of Pine Hill Drive. They spent a week there with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hine before going on to Coral Gables for Easter week.

The William Routes and their children, Chuck and Debbie, of Robson Lane traveled to Washington, D. C. for Easter week. After a tour of the capital, they journeyed on to historic Williamsburg and Jamestown.

The Paul Mettler family of Channing Cross Road traveled to Ames, Ia., for the holiday week to visit grandmother Mrs. W. H. Root. While Patricia and Bob stayed on there, the Mettlers traveled on to Nebraska for a few days.

THE RICHARD BAIRDS of Robinson Circle flew to Florida for a leisurely vacation with their children, Leslie and Randy, at Easter. They visited both Pompano Beach and Fort Lauderdale for swimming and sunning. The John Fishers and the little Fishers, Linda, John, Bob, Mark and Kelly, of N. Reading Road chose to bask in the Florida sun for two weeks. They stayed at the Golden Falcon at Pompano Beach while they toured surrounding areas. They planned to visit Mrs. Fisher's brother, Mike Thomas, who is a radio announcer in Fort Lauderdale.

Miss Andrews Is Married

Janette Dee Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Andrews of Red Oaks Trail, Birmingham, and Charles Raymond Carolin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Carolin of Palmare Road, Birmingham, spoke their marriage vows Saturday at a 10:30 o'clock ceremony in Holy Name Church. The Rev. Father William Carolin, uncle of the bridegroom officiated at the service, which was followed by a breakfast at the Birmingham Country Club. Later in the day a reception and buffet supper for young friends of the bride and groom took place in the home of the bridegroom's parents.

FOR HER wedding the bride chose a floor-length gown of white satins with a wide sash and neckline encircled with Alencon lace, a bell-shaped skirt and a detachable Watteau train. She carried a white prayer book—a gift of the groom—topped with white butterfly orchids and trailing ivy.

Linda Carolin was maid of honor for her sister-in-law, and bridesmaids included Judy Alenry and Judy Andrews, sister of the bride. Janie Andrews was a flower girl for her sister.

Bridesmaids and honor maid were dressed identically in nine green taffeta accented by lace bodices. They wore matching headpieces with butterfly veils and carried cascade bouquets of yellow Majestic daisies. The flower girl carried the same bouquet in miniature and was dressed in white nylon over yellow taffeta.

BEST MAN WAS Anthony Samartino of Detroit, and seating the guests were Gary Wade and Phil and Pete Tompkins of Detroit, and Jim Andrews, brother of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will be at home in Royal Oak.
