

Youthful Gardeners Will Be Directed By Club Committee

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 4-3257

The Wing Lake Shores branch WNGFA has organized a Junior garden club and has held three meetings thus far. This is an experiment being done in conjunction with the Oakland County extension service.

The children attending the club are Linda Witherspoon, Pat and Jane Sewell, Janet Holl, Jane Fogarty, Ellen and Laura Rehn, Kim Nielsen, Pam Coghagen, Diane Dickerson, Penny Guthrie, Cindy Piers, Linda and Sharon Butler and Christine Jerome.

Plans for the club include having the children plant and maintain gardens, study flowers and their arrangements, bird study and the planting of trees and shrubs. The girls will have a table for their display at the forthcoming senior garden club's flower show in May.

THE COMMITTEE of women in charge of this project are Mrs. Frank Kussay, president of the Wing Lake Shores branch, and Mrs. Albert Carr, Mrs. Everett Carter, Mrs. H. A. Pries, Mrs. Mark Nielsen and Mrs. Philip Rothwell.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE Cub Scout Pack 101 of Bloomfield Village held their annual sports night at the Bloomfield Village School. The winners, each of whom received a little league bat, were Bob Straight, Bob Neff, Peter Holm, Tom Knippen, Mark Kellman, Mike Elms, Peter Hill, Bill Easton and Bob Gowing.

Last Saturday the pack took a field trip to Selfridge Air Force Base to inspect the latest Air Force jets and to see a special Boy Scout Day air show.

CHALMERS LAKE Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Clark of Wing Lake Road and daughters Marilyn and Barbara returned home last Thursday from a trip to New York City. The family did some sight-seeing and met Mrs. Clark's parents who were returning from a 60-day cruise to Africa and South America.

This week Mrs. Clark will open her home for the Birmingham Panhellenic meeting. Mrs. Clark is an alumna of Alpha Gamma Delta who will be hosting this year's meeting. Coffee and dessert will be served to the representatives from the 18 participating societies.

STILL MEADOW Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Atkins and sons Tom, Mike and Danny returned to their Burning Tree Drive home last Saturday after vacationing in Florida for two weeks. The family spent most of the visit with Atkin's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Atkins of Punta Gorda, Fla. The local couple also took side trips (leaving the boys with their grandparents) to Daytona and Ft. Lauderdale where they saw Mr. and Mrs. William Carrick of Ranch Lane, Lone Pine Village. The foursome enjoyed dinner and dancing one evening and got together again the following day for some deep sea fishing.

The Carricks, with children David and Claudia, spent the Easter vacation with Carrick's mother, Mrs. Paul E. Carrick, Sr. of Birmingham and Ft. Lauderdale.
