

Cranbrook CC Adding Pool; New Members

A second swimming pool is being constructed at the Cranbrook Country Club, 30680 Evergreen Road, and the new facilities have prompted the board of directors to accept a limited number of new members.

With the addition of the new Olympic-sized pool, club members will have one of the largest swimming facilities available in the Birmingham area. The new pool is being constructed by the Birmingham Recreation Department offices.

Craig, 29937 Rock Creek Drive, Southfield.
IN ADDITION to the pool, a new covered terrace, an enlarged bath house and a snack bar will be added. Construction on the new facilities is well underway and the club anticipates having its members diving and swimming in the new pool by June 10.
For application for membership or additional information, contact Craig at EL 7-1248.

Umpires' School

Nemesis

IN OTHER action last week, Mosher gave up three hits and struck out nine as the Cranes edged Groves, 2-1.
Cranbrook scored both runs in the third—one on a single, by Billesdon and the other on a double steal.
The next game for the baseball teams is at 4 p.m. today against visiting Hamtramck. Saturday, Coach John Laskarides' squad will travel to Pittsburgh to meet Shady Side.

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB
The spirit of comradeship ran especially high at last Friday's meeting of the group of Birmingham's retired men. This was occasioned by the return of the Club's "Fort Lauderdale Auxiliary," composed of Gus Ziegler and a number of other members who have been out of town for the winter months.

It is always good to welcome those who have been away from the fold for a long time and Dr. Laine, the club president, did justice to the occasion at the opening of the meeting.
Jack Gordon, who is acting as secretary while the official secretary, Arthur Hank is enjoying a trip to the West Coast, is doing a fine job. Hollis Halliday showed slides which he made on fishing.

Work

Bob Fritz, who last year, as a junior, was clocked at 4:39 in the mile. John Coburn, a junior, ran 4:41 last spring and has equaled that mark this year.
In the half mile Elliott Andrews is the fastest at 2:03.7, but Snyder admits that he has "some good boys coming up."

Brewer, a senior, is undefeated in the low hurdles and is listed as a four-event man. Besides the two hurdles, he also competes in the broad jump and sprint relay.
Two juniors looking good in the quarter mile are Copeland and Jeff Hippa. Sophomores Dave Craig, Chuck Earl and Greg Dearth are not far behind.

OTHERS WITH good potential are Doug Green in the shot put and Steve Jay and Bob Parsons in the high jump, both of whom are expected to clear six feet by the end of the season.
A good measuring stick of the team's potential will come in the Central Michigan Relays a week from Saturday at Mt. Pleasant, Cranbrook was runnerup the last two years and won it three years ago.

Meantime, the Cranes will attempt to lengthen their winning streaks against Topeka at 4 p.m. Friday, and at Waterford Township Tuesday.
