Rebecca DeWitt Exchanges Vows In Church Rites

Wearing her mother's wedding gown of dotted French organza, Rebecca DeWitt, daughter of the Right Rev. and Mrs. Robert L. DeWitt of Farmington, formerly of Bloomfield Hills, walked up the aisle of Trinity Episcopal Church in Farmington Saturday evening to become the bride of Thomas Richard Kershner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kershner of Tillary Place, Birmingham.

MRS. T. R. KERSHNER

As is the custom in many European countries, the service opened and closed with hymns sung by the congregation. "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven", the processional, was sung a few years ago at the wedding of Queen Elizabeth, and the recessional hymn was the well-known "Nun Danket". The Rev. Joseph A. Pelham officiated at the service, which was followed by an informal reception in the church.

BECKY'S CHAPEL LENGTH veil was held in place by 4 clusters of lilacs of the valley, pink sweetheart roses and forget-me-nots. Her bridal bouquet combined the same flowers. Charlotte Ganton of Sylvan Lake was maid of honor, and Katharina DeWitt was bridesmaid for her sister. They both wore white-length gowns of pale green dotted Swiss with tapering white organza collars. Their headpieces were, small green velvet bows, and they carried pale pink geranium blossoms surrounded by geranium leaves.

Goer Garber of Mt. Clemens was best man, and seating the guests were Anthony Hamner of Birmingham; William Vasu of Orchard Lake; James Kershner, brother of the groom, and Laurence DeWitt, brother of the bride.

AS OF SEPTEMBER, the newlyweds will be at home in Cambridge, Mass., where the bridegood will begin graduate studies in the field of economics at Harvard. Previously she attended the University of Michigan and was graduated from Oakland University. Becky is a graduate of Kingswood School Cranbrook and Stephens College and attended Oakland.
