

Reception at Club Follows Ceremony

At a ceremony solemnized Saturday in Christ Church Cathedral, Anne Bethune Duffield, daughter of Mark B. Duffield of Sunnyslope Drive, Birmingham, and the late Mrs. Duffield, spoke her marriage vows to Charles Hugh Whitelaw, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hugh Whitelaw of Pilgrim Road, Birmingham.

The Rev. Louis C. Gillette officiated at the 2 o'clock service, which was followed by a reception at Orchard Lake Country Club.

Ivory silk beads of rose fashioned the bridal robes, which were styled with a Sabrina neckline, elbow-length sleeves, a molded bodice and dome-shaped skirt which extended into chapel train. Anne's veil of silk illusion fell from an heirloom crown of orange blossoms and she carried white roses and ivy.

MRS. DANIEL C. Learned, sister of the bride, of East Lansing, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mable Harabedian, Julie Stubbs, Virginia Walter, Mary Datto and Mrs. William O'Brien. Pamela Anne Learned was her aunt's flower girl. All were groomed alike in romance blue linen and carried daisies and bachelor buttons.

F. Jerome Tene II of Shaker Heights, O., was best man, and ushers included Ralph C. West of Grand Rapids; Bruce H. Smith, Robert S. Swanson, Guy W. Duffield and Jeremiah B. Gillette.

Following a honeymoon in Bermuda, the newlyweds will make their home at 1132 Yosemite, Birmingham.

Chapter Meets

The northwest suburban chapter of Alpha Phi Alumnae held its spring luncheon on Tuesday at the Village Woman's Club. Mrs. Sidney Kelleran of Birmingham was in charge of the annual event.

Sets Date

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Grady of Birmingham announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Rosemary Mercier, to James Conrad Leszczynski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leszczynski of Grosse Pointe. The bride-elect is a graduate medical assistant from Highland Park Junior College, and her father attended Hillsdale College and the Detroit College of Law. His fraternity is Alpha Tau Omega. A July 27 wedding is planned.

Trip to New York Follows Wedding

Sandra Mary Loynd of Grosse Pointe was married to Keith Allen Brown of East Lincoln Road, Birmingham, in a double ring, candlelight ceremony Saturday in St. James Lutheran Church, Grosse Pointe.

The Rev. Russel officiated. The bride is the daughter of Harry J. Loynd and the late Mrs. Loynd. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown of Detroit. His mother was the late Mrs. Ruth Crowthers Brown.

For the ceremony, the bride wore an ivory tulle and tulle gown of classic design. The gown was trimmed with imported embroidery on the pelum and the end of her chapel train. A petite crown of matching embroidery secured her bouffant veil of ivory illusion. She carried a single white rose.

Her six attendants, including maid of honor Martha Jane Sanford of Detroit, were groomed alike in candlelight linen with A-line skirts and trimmed with matching embroidery. Small open crown pillboxes completed their ensemble. They carried miniature blue Bismark hydrangeas.

BRIDESMAIDS were Judy Carpenter of Ovid, Mich.; Elizabeth Congoumjan of Lathrup Village; Terry Ann Harger of Detroit; and Gail Biederman of Grosse Pointe. Gail Ellen Brown, the groom's sister, assisted as junior bridesmaid.

Gary Dwyer of Philadelphia was best man. Ushers were David Lee Brown of Worcester, Mass.; David Sanford of Detroit; Keith Johnson of Birmingham; Lloyd Stephens, Jr. of Detroit; and Lewis Dickens of Grosse Ile.

The ballroom at the Detroit Golf Club was illuminated with candlelight for the reception. The newlyweds will reside on Forest Ave. in Birmingham when they return from their New York honeymoon.
